At the close of the reading, Stewart quietly asked Goldthorpe. "Jue, what did I say to you that you got so mad about?" The reply was "Get out of that. I don't war you that you got so mad about?" The reply was "Get out of that, I don't was to talk to you," and a slap in the face. The blow was not a heavy one, but, it publicity was naturally annoying to Stewart, and on Tuesday he had his assailant brought before Mayor Horton. Goldthorpe's witnesses tried to show that Stewart had spat at the defendant, but that story was clearly made up out very little wool. The mayor expres regret that so trivial a case was not set-tled out of court, but said that an assault had been clearly proven. He fined Goldthorpe 25c and costs, in all $4.80. Goldthorpe 20c and costs, in all except Goldthorpe, who appears to be very ex-citable, caused much amusement during the trial by the realistic manner in which he described the tiff between himself and Stewart. It is fair to the former to say that he was not one of the hoodlums that he was not one of the hoodlume mentioned above, but a quick temper

> > Presentation to Mr. Embury.

At the close of the Goderich Mode class term, the members of the class showed their appreciation of their in-scructor by presenting him with a handsome silver ice-pitcher, accompanied by the following address :-

the following address:—

To Mr. Embury, our esteemed and re spected teacher:—We, the students of Goderich Model School, desire to express the sincere respect and regard we entertain for you, as well as our high appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered us during the term now drawing to a close. We fully believe that during our attendance at the Goderich Model School you have endeavored to promote our best interests, and to fit us Model School you have endeavored to promote our best interests, and to fit us for that sphere of life upon which we are about to enter. We shall always look back upon our three months' attendance at the Model School with pleasure, and we hope you will have similar recollections. We now ask you to accept this small present, not on account of its value, but as a token of our respect; and may it in after years recall to you the kindly feeling that existed between you and your first Model class in Goderich. Signed in behalf of the Model students, R. A. SEABORNE. G. H. THOMPSON.
