Man Returns to Native Place and Home-Coming Marks a Terrible Tragedy—Five Are Slain by the Suicide.

Berlin, Sept. 21-A demestic tragedy, involving the murder of five members of a household, has occurred in the village of Rendel, Hesse, William Gunderloch, who returned from London Thursday evening, went to the house of his father-in-law, where his wife was living, shot his father-in-law, mother-in-law, wife, pro ther-in-law and sister-in-law. Police dogs, which were out on the tracks of Gunderloch, found the body of the murderer at noom in a neighboring potato field. He had commit-of a farmer named Eberhard, living in the village of Rendel. After wasting his patrimony of several thousand pounds, Gunderloch sold his farm and went to London eighteen months ago, abandening his wife and two children, who went to live with Eberhard. Before leaving Gunderloch threatened o murder his wife's family. Gunderloch's wife was the last victim. She heard the shots and made a desperate effort to reach the neighporing house through the roof. She had torn away twenty tiles when her husband entered the bedroom and shot her as she hung half out of the window. Five years ago Gundeloch shot his own brother dead, but was acquitted on the ground that he had acted in self-defence.
