System Was Full of Poison; Pains in Side and Back

Constipation for Many Years, but Was Entirely Cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The most common ailment and the most distressing cause of disease and suffering to-day is constipation. Artificial and sedentary indoor life com- to induce torpid, sluggish action of the liver, kidneys and bowels. As result poisonous waste matter re- mains in the system and gives rise to pains and aches and affords a start- ing point for serious disease. Infectious and contagious diseases are little known to persons whose kidneys and bowels are kept in normal activity, for there are no suitable conditions for disease germs to arrive in. Even common colds usually take their start when they find the system in a constipated, poi- soned condition.

Ed. Miller, West Flamboro, writes: "I can truthfully say Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cured me of constipation. I suf- fered with constipation almost ever-

DAILY NEWS SAYS GOVERNMENT BACK TO FACE WITH GRAVE CRISIS.

LONDON, April 30. The Government and the country face to face with the gravest crisis that has arisen since the war be- gan, the Daily News says editorially. The Prime Minister yesterday with- drew the new service bill after a dis- cussion which served only to reveal that every man's hand was against the elaborate compromise had been taken down at the first trial, and the very existence of the Government may be conceivably imperilled by the controversy which is in itself wholly official.

IMPLICATES IRISHMEN IN THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, April 30. A cable to the World from London says that papers found on Sir Roger Casement implicate Irishmen ac- cording to a statement made from an authoritative source.

IRELAND'S CASUALTIES.

LONDON, April 30. Towards of 100 persons have been shot or injured thus far in Dublin, the correspondent at Belfast of the Evening News reports in a despatch dated last night.

A statement issued to-night by the Royal Press Bureau regarding the situation in Ireland, says: "The rebels are surrendering freely. The Government is broken." Another official statement says: "Messengers have been sent from the rebel leaders to other parts of the country, including Galway, Wick, Wexford and other Dublin counties, urging them to surrender."

An official this evening says: "Seven hundred and seven prisoners have been taken, including the Countess Markievicz."

Field Marshal French, Commander of the Home Forces, reports that the general Post Office in Dublin, which has been the principal stronghold of the Sinn Feiners, is burned down, and, notably, one of the leaders of the rebels, is reported killed. Many rebels have been made prisoners. The result in Dublin is on the verge of collapse. In the rest of Ireland, the situation is generally satisfactory.

John Redmond has placed himself absolutely at the disposal of the au- thorities, and is in constant touch with them. He has instructed Nation- alist supporters in all parts of Ireland to hold themselves at the disposal of the military authorities. In many places, besides Dublin, Nationalist leaders have already on their own initiative mobilized in support of the troops. At Tipperary yesterday the volunteers offered their services.

The general officer, Commanding in chief in Ireland has reported the situation in Dublin much more satisfac- torily. Throughout the country, there is still much to be done which could take time, but he hoped that the back of the rebellion had been broken. Last night messengers were sent out from the rebel leaders in Dublin to rebel bodies in Galway, Wick, Wexford, Louth and Dublin, ordering them to surrender. Priests and the Royal Irish Con- stabulary are doing their utmost to disseminate this information. As re- sults the situation in Dublin the rebels from areas in Sackville St. Post Office and the four court districts are surrendering forcibly. More incendi- ary fires took place in Sackville last night, but the fire brigade is now able to resume work. It is further reported that up to the present 707 prisoners have been taken. Included among them is Countess Markievicz. The rebels of Enniscombe are reported to be still in possession of this place. Carlow and Dunavin are be- lieved to be quiet.

LOYALTY PRAISED.

DUBLIN, April 30. Baron Wimborne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, expressed to the Associ- ated Press at the Vice-regal Lodge to- day, the assurance that the seditious movement will be suppressed in the course of a few days. The Viceroy is full of praise for the loyalty displayed by the great majority of the Irish peo- ple, and considered the momentary success gained, and the damage done by the rebels is small, viewed in con- nection with the surprise of the out- break and the evident preparations for it.

SURRENDER OF GENERAL TOWNSHEND.

LONDON, April 30. Major General Townshend, com- mander of the British forces besieged at Kut-el-Amara, in Mesopotamia, by Turkish forces, since last December, has surrendered. This information is obtained from a British official state- ment issued this afternoon.

For some time after the Towns- hend expedition started out from the Persian Gulf it was steadily successful and pushed up the Tigris and Eu- phrates until in September, 1915, it defeated the Turks in an encounter at Kut-el-Amara, which later was to be the scene of the British surrender.

Then, pushed on within a few miles of Baghdad, their goal, they defeated the Turks at Ctesphon, but later the Turks, reinforced, com- pelled them to retire hastily to Kut- el-Amara. The battle of Ctesphon was one of the fiercest hand-to-hand struggles which the expeditionary force was engaged in. The British were said to have been outnumbered six times by the Ottoman troops. Four times Townshend rallied his men. A hardly less desperate venture was the retreat to Kut-el-Amara, which was accomplished under extra- ordinary disadvantages and halted in England as a remarkable achieve- ment. Not only did General Towns- hend ward off the pursuing Turks with small losses, but succeeded in taking with him all his wounded. A few weeks after, when it became evi- dent that the army at Kut-el-Amara would be unable to fight its way out, a relief expedition was despatched.

This force encountered comparatively little opposition in the early stages of the march up the river, but as it drew nearer Kut-el-Amara it was opposed by formidable bodies of Turks, who were massed on both sides of the Tigris below the invested town. Several striking victories for the relief force were announced, but their last efforts have been counter- acted by the Turks so successfully, that the advance stopped. The Turks taking the offensive, pushed back the British, inflicting large losses on them.

Throughout the Mesopotamia cam- paign the fighting has been heavy, and the losses were severe on April 14th. The Tigris army up to that time lost 8,000 men. Since then there have been several important battles between the Turks and the relief ex- pedition. The surrender of General Townshend is one of the instances of war in which an entire fighting unit of important numbers laid down its arms. Up to the last General Towns- hend kept alive the hope that he would be relieved. King George sent a message of encouragement to him a month ago. The message was sent on April 7th. The General said he ex- pected to be relieved shortly. He assured the British expedition he would hold out to the limit of endur- ance, but recent reverses suffered by the army which attempted to rescue him, apparently made the situation a hopeless one. The Mesopotamian ex- pedition has been one of the most dif- ficult that any army has undertaken during the war. The torrid climate and lack of fresh water, together with the difficulties of transport, made great calls on the endurance of the troops. Moreover, the positions held by the Turks below Kut-el-Amara, en- trenching and strongly fortified, were most formidable. The original expedi- tion was composed partly of Indian troops, but the relief force for the most part was made up from men from England and the colonies. The following official announcement was made: After a resistance protracted over 143 days, and conducted with gallantry and fortitude that will be forever memorable, General Towns- hend has been compelled by the final exhaustion of his supplies to surren- der. Before doing so he destroyed the guns and munitions. The forces under him consist of 2,700 British troops of all ranks and services, and some six thousand Indian troops and their followers.

GERMAN TROOPS DISPERSED.

PARIS, April 30. After a violent bombardment of the French positions near Avocourt and Hill 304 on the Verdun front, west of the Meuse, German troops were mass- ed for an assault, the War Office re- ports to-day. This attack was pre- vented by French artillery, which dis- persed the German troops. A vigor- ous attack was made on the French trenches east of Thiaumont farm, but the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

LONDON, April 30. The Germans made a gas attack at Hulluch, but the gas broke back over their trenches clearing a thousand yards and causing many casualties.

Four aero battles yesterday on the western front, and resulted in the destruction of two German aircraft be- hind the British lines.

The Germans recaptured trenches southwest of Lake Narpoz by a massed infantry attack.

GERMAN TRENCH CAPTURED.

PARIS, April 30. The capture of a German trench north of Deadman's Hill, with 53 prisoners, the ejection of the Germans from the trenches they had taken there, and the repulse of a German assault in Vosges are re- ported in official circles this after- noon.

Amusements.

THE FAMILY DIVIDED AT THE NICKEL.

The opening bill at the Nickel The- atre this week is an elaborate one. The feature film is entitled "The Family Divided." It is a powerful three-part social drama, adapted from the play "The House Divided," by H. S. Shel- don. It is a charming production in which the beautiful actress Edna Mayo and the matinee idol Bryant Washburn play the principal charac- ters. Bert Stanley, the rag-time ar- tist, and Jack Lane, the singer of pop- ular ballads, will be heard in new songs. All lovers of the movies should make an effort to attend to-day's per- formances.

AT THE CRESCENT.

Mr. Frank DeGroot sings "When the Bell in the Lighthouse Rings Ding, Ding," at the Crescent Picture Pal- ace to-day. This is one of Mr. De Groot's favorite numbers. The pic- ture programme is one of the finest there is. A great Edison feature: "The Scar of Conscience" with Mar- garet Prussing and George Wright; a Biograph melodrama is "The Little Runaways"; a strong western drama is "The One Forgotten"; a thousand feet of interesting world news is con- tained in the Selig News Pictorial and a screaming Vitagraph comedy is "Cutty the Fugitive Hunter" featuring Wally Van the classy comedian. A truly big show for little money.

FOGGY AT THE CAPE.—It was very foggy at Cape Race yesterday, and nothing was reported to have passed in or out.

FLORIZEL DUE.—The S. S. Flori- zel is due to arrive here this evening from New York with a large general cargo.
