Three Party Conference Considers Nova Scotia Mines Dispute

Germany's Note Engages Attention of the Powers—British Cabinet Faces a Deadlock on Cruiser Construction—British Miners Insist on Withdrawal of Owners' Proposals.

CONFERENCES RESUME TO-DAY.

SYDNEY, July 22. —The British Steel Corporation officials, the American officials, and the Premier of Nova Scotia, Mr. James Stewart, were expected to arrive here to-morrow afternoon, for the arrival here of J. T. Brown, Deputy Minister of Mines. The conferences are aimed at reaching a settlement of the dispute between the mine owners and the miners. No statements have been made.

THE GERMAN SECURITY NOTE.

BERLIN, July 22. —The German security note, which was delivered to France and Great Britain on Monday, expresses satisfaction that the Allies are disposed to cooperate with the German Government for the consolidation of peace by mutual understanding, of opinions on Allied proposals on questions of principle, and on reservations on points of detail for final negotiations.

EDWIN PAPERS APPROVE PACT.

LONDON, July 22. —Germany's reply to the security note given favorable reception by the press. The papers, which say the note is friendly, gives an impression of the sincerity of the German Government and justifies the hope that negotiations for a security pact will now proceed toward settlement, although this is not necessarily in immediate view.

BRAND'S VIEWS NOT SUPPORTED.

PARIS, July 22. —The Government has begun careful consideration of the German security note presented to the Allies on Monday and will get in touch as soon as possible with the various countries interested to determine the policy to be followed in carrying on. If this is decided, negotiations with the German Government for a security pact guaranteeing the western German frontiers. Exchanges of views will require many days, and consequently conversations with German Ambassadors at London or Paris will not start for some time. The favorable impression made by Foreign Minister Briand's summary of the German note was not maintained after perusal of the text, when it was made public officially yesterday.

CHINA'S DEVELOPMENT.

LONDON, July 22. —The Labor Party published to-day the text of a 1500 word manifesto, cabled by the Canton Nationalist Government, protesting against and denouncing "the exploitation of China by Imperialistic powers," which, it declares, prevents China from developing herself on independent nationalist lines. "Imperceptibly and by degrees," says the manifesto, "the issue is undermining the peace of the world, until a new universal tragedy will be enacted in the Pacific Ocean. It will then be too late for you to help extinguish the conflagration."

enacted in the Pacific Ocean. It will then be too late for you to help extinguish the conflagration."

CONFERENCE CONDITIONS.

LONDON, July 22. —The possibility of a Great Britain coal strike was increased to-day when the miners refused to confer with the owners unless the latter first withdrew their proposal for wage decreases.

DEADLOCK ON THE CRUISER QUESTION.

LONDON, July 22. —Premier Stanley Baldwin apparently failed at to-day's Cabinet meeting to settle the deadlock caused by conflicting opinions of Cabinet Ministers regarding the building of several new cruisers. The Cabinet session this morning adjourned without it, it is understood, reaching any definite decision.

SETTLING CHINA'S PROBLEM.

WASHINGTON, July 22. —Substantial accord has been reached by the powers concerning the formula to deal with the whole Chinese problem. Formal acquiescence in some elements of the programme still, is lacking, but Peking diplomats are expected to be in a position to submit the formula to the provisional Government of China, at an early date.

U. S. COAL SITUATION.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. —Anthracite operators reported to-day that at a conference with the miners' representatives here this morning, they were assured no strike in the hard coal field was meant in the telegram sent yesterday by Van A. Bittner, leader of the soft coal miners, to Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of Labor Davis. Bittner's telegram had declared that unless there was some settlement of the wage controversy in northern West Virginia, a general coal strike might result.

EDUCATIONAL DELEGATE DISAPPEARS.

LONDON, July 22. —A twenty-four hour search by Scotland Yard has failed to reveal even a trace of Professor Joseph Victor Coldness of Stevens Point, who is a delegate to the World Federation of Education Associations, meeting at Edinburgh, who disappeared here on Monday.

KILLED BY LIGHTING.

AMOS, Que., July 22. —R. Gendreau, 13, was instantly killed when a lightning bolt entered his home yesterday afternoon. Another occupant of the house was stunned. The house was slightly damaged.

ROYAL WEATHER FOR ROYAL GARDEN PARTY.

LONDON, July 22. —One of the most successful and colorful royal garden parties since the war was held in the beautiful grounds of Buckingham Palace on Tuesday with King George and Queen Mary as hosts, to seven thousand subjects and distinguished guests from foreign countries. The King and Queen had the traditional royal weather for the party. The day turned out sunny and the temperature was oppressively warm.

A SURPRISE IN DREAMLAND.

MONTREAL, July 22. —Two men are in hospital and one is not expected to live, as the result of a hold-up early this morning at the Dreamland Club, St. Lawrence Boulevard. The hold-up was the work of two unknown gunmen who entered the Club and forced the patrons to line up with face to the wall. The bandits secured about twenty dollars and made their escape after shooting two patrons.

CONSIDERATION FOR HIS VICTIMS.

LONDON, Ont., July 22. —Leslie Hathaway, held here on a charge of holding up the Thorndale Bank and taking $5,000 after looting the staff in the safe, told police officers he had returned to Thorndale within an hour after the robbery, having feared that the hold-up had not been discovered and that the staff he locked in the safe would suffocate.

Home Life in Soviet Russia

APPALLING SCENES OF POVERTY.

Lancelot Lawton continues his articles on "Home Life in Soviet Russia" in the current number of "The London" magazine. He gives further illuminating pen-pictures of conditions under the present regime in town and country. He concludes:—"I spent considerable time in the country, where eighty-five per cent of Russia's vast population dwells. The scenes of poverty which I witnessed there were appalling. I spoke with hundreds of peasants, all of whom were dressed in rags and were hungry; to a man they were against the Communists. I saw many women sitting at hand looms, weaving a rough

ECZEMA IN RASH ON FACE

Itched and Burned. Lost Rest. Cuticura Heals.

"Eczema broke out in a rash on my face and itched and burned causing me to scratch. Later my face got so sore that I could hardly wash it. I lost my rest at night and cried from the pain of it. My face was badly disfigured. I tried different remedies without any benefit. A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. After using it I got relief so purchased more, which completely healed me." (Signed) Leo B. Croft, Crescent Beach, Nova Scotia.

Use Cuticura for every-day toilet purposes. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum. Sample sent free by mail. Cuticura Soap 25c. Cuticura Ointment 25c. Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

The rich peasant, who was ruined by the Revolution, had amassed wealth again; the poor peasant, in order to meet his debts, has been compelled to give up his land to him and to work from sunrise to sunset in his service. Thus serfdom had been set up again. "One peasant said to me: 'It's no use to struggle against the rich man. He can always shout louder than you.' But another peasant interrupted: 'I'd like to cut the rich man's gullet.' "The landowners' houses are in ruins. The old proprietors have all been killed off or have gone away. But a new and worse tenant has arisen—a man from the people; the rich peasant. And that is how the Communist Revolution, which was to establish equality among all men in Russia, has ended."

But a new and worse tenant has arisen—a man from the people; the rich peasant. And that is how the Communist Revolution, which was to establish equality among all men in Russia, has ended."

linen, from which clothing is made. No shops and hardly any schools existed. Life had gone back to the primitive age. The rich peasant, who was ruined by the Revolution, had amassed wealth again; the poor peasant, in order to meet his debts, has been compelled to give up his land to him and to work from sunrise to sunset in his service. Thus serfdom had been set up again. "One peasant said to me: 'It's no use to struggle against the rich man. He can always shout louder than you.' But another peasant interrupted: 'I'd like to cut the rich man's gullet.' "The landowners' houses are in ruins. The old proprietors have all been killed off or have gone away. But a new and worse tenant has arisen—a man from the people; the rich peasant. And that is how the Communist Revolution, which was to establish equality among all men in Russia, has ended."
