LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—The Bishop of Huron will preach in Christ Church to-morrow evening.

—Rev. Robt. Aylward, who will preach in Knox Presbyterian Church, South London, to-morrow.

—Mr. Philip Pocock, of the London Shoe Company, returned last night from the great rubber sale of the Canadian Rubber Company, Montreal.

—Mrs. (Judge) Fitzgerald was given a farewell by the King's Daughters of St. George's Church, London West, prior to leaving for Welland.

—Miss Flo Simmons, of London, who has been here on a visit to her cousin, Miss Phoebe Moss, of John street south, returned home to-day. (Hamilton Times.)

—The Black Knight is one of the most interesting speakers on the prohibition platform. Everybody should attend his meetings on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday next.

—Messrs. Stuart & Stuart, barristers, solicitors and notaries, have removed from 214 Talbot street to southwest corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, over the C. P. R. ticket office.

—The Advertiser takes pleasure in noting that in addition to the many honours conferred upon ex-Mayor Spencer, the People's Life Insurance Company of Toronto have appointed him on their board of directors.

—The funeral of the late Mr. Robert Cowley, who was largely attended, took place from his late residence on Thursday afternoon to Silam Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Ferguson, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Cowley and St. Light. The floral offerings were elaborate and beautiful.

—The students' library of Huron College has elected the following officers: Librarian, J. C. McCracken; vice-librarian, D. H. Collins; treasurer, Benjamin Appleby. For the literary society: President, Thos. Farr; vice-president, George McQuillan; secretary and treasurer, J. C. McCracken. Management committee, D. McMillan, D. H. Collins and V. M. Dundas.

—A grand concert of the Grand Opera House on Monday, Nov. 27, under the auspices of the two encampments of Oddfellows. They have secured the services of Mrs. Caldwell, the well-known soprano, Mr. Mrs. H. H. Bright, of Toronto; also Prof. Fox, the violinist. These people are well and favorably known to London audiences and no doubt will meet with a good reception.

—Marie Tavery, who appears at the Grand on Tuesday night, is a native of Cologne, and made his debut at La Scala, Milan, the most famous opera house in Europe. It has been said that whoever can triumph at La Scala can triumph throughout the world. Tavery is an exceedingly accomplished and charming lady, charming in her manner and speech, and in private life she stands upon an eminence attained by but few women of the stage. She is of a singularly retiring and modest disposition, but on the stage she instantly becomes another being and discloses power, both in singing and acting, hardly expected by those who have seen her only in private life.

Arthur Lloyd in "Our Party."

A fair-sized audience greeted the first appearance of the Arthur Lloyd Company at the Grand last evening. Six people comprise the company, but they are enough to elucidate the plot of the play, which is very light. The feature of the show is Lloyd's singing. He has a good voice, sings easily and uses catchy songs. He was several times encoored and gave some of the latest topical hits, including a few of his own authorship. The company will give a matinee to-day and appear again at night.

The New Bell.

The handsome new bell that has been secured for St. Peter's arrived in the city yesterday by the M. C. R. and has been taken into the cathedral. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the interesting ceremony of blessing the bell will be performed by Bishop O'Connor, while Dr. Flannery, of St. Thomas, will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The new bell, weighing nearly 4,000 pounds, which has been fully described by the ADVERTISER, has been placed in front of the sanctuary, so that it can be viewed by the entire audience. There will be no charge for admission, but a collection will be taken up during the services, to which all are welcome.

Reed, but now of No. 118, as an appreciation of the performance of his duties while passing through the chairs, and his interest in the court. Bros. J. W. Fletcher and F. C. Toon were the recipients of past chief rangars' jewels in recognition of their continued services in office and the faithful performance of duty. Bros. W. A. Reed and W. J. Element, P.D.D.H.C.Rs., made the presentations in neat and complimentary terms, the recipients replying in a feeling manner, remarking the pleasure it gave them to contribute to the success of Court Defiance, No. 7, and the C.
