THE PEKINESE SPANIEL

Dog From China. London, April 15.-The most fashionable dog in London just now is the Pekinese spaniel. This fact was demonstrated at the first show of the Ladies' Kennel Association held at Westminster this week. Among all the tiny pet dogs which were seen in silk-lined pens, the Pekinese were easily first in popularity. Additional interest was centered in them by reason of their being judged by a mandarin. Wung Yun, from the Chinese embassy, in his picturesque oriental silks. The entries totaled upward of 600 but the actual number of dogs benched fell a little short. They consisted mostly of toys, and it was to one of these Pekinese spaniels, Fugi of Kobe, be Brantford, April 14.—At a meeting of the senior C. L. A. magnates, the proposal for a 60 and 40 per cent division of the gate receipts was the subject for a lot of discussion. The Toronto clubs, and particularly the Chippewas, were opposed to such a division. This question will have to be dealt with at the Good Friday convention.

The proposal for a limit to the pay of players was not touched upon. The club's representatives did not at all favor any withdrawal from the C. L. A., and are opposed to Frank Nelson's amendment for the senior clubs to put up $200 each.

However, if the scheme materializes, battalion movements. After 50 years' service of his country, a large portion of the time on active service as a soldier, Sergt. Patrick war. Local military men say that he had seen longer and harder service than any veteran in Canada. He was the army on Jan. 8, 1867.

Imperial army orders for March announce the issue of a new infantry training manual, 1905, of which advance copies have been distributed. Infantry training, 1902 (provisional), upon which we have been working in Canada, is canceled, with the exception of sections 42 to 105 (physical training, rifle exercises and bayonet fighting). and appendix II. (physical training with apparatus), which are to remain in force pending the issue of a special manual to be styled "appendix to training manuals." It is understood the new manual, 1905, makes little or no radical changes in infantry training.

This year's Bisley team is to have quite an outing. It will leave approximately about June 10, and will spend nearly a month in England. It is starting a week earlier than usual, also, to get the men toned to the climate differences. These, as all who have visited the shores of the beloved old land know. are very great. Physical form, as every good rifleman knows, is essential to good shooting, and the action of the D. R. A. in providing for the extra time is a sign that the association is alive to the needs of the situation. Chances for a successful course at the great imperial meet look bright for Canada.
