OUEEN ALEXANDRA'S LETTER.

We have just received 100 copies of Queen Alexandra's letter written to her subjects in reply to the condolences received at the time of King Edward's death. The letter is an exact fac-simile of the original, and has a beautiful border, specially designed by Sir Edward J Poynter, President Royal Academy of Art, for the occasion. It makes a handsome work of art, and being 22x30 makes an ideal size for framing. The issue is limited, and we offer our supply while it lasts at 50¢ per copy.

East End Businessmen Held a Grand Outing in Queen's

SPORTS A BIG FEATURE

Baby Show, Pie-Eating Contest, High Jumping by Thoroughbred Horses, Etc., Pleased the People.

East London businessmen of the East End yesterday, when a crowd estimated at betwen five and six thousand attended the third annual picnic at Queen's Park.

The main grand stand was well filled and the officials kept the enthusiasm at the "peak load" all afternoon. A programme of sports was run off, which included many new and decidedly entertaining numbers.

Hon, Adam Beck's famou, jumping horses, Sir Edward, Sir James and Sir Thomas, ridden by Thomas Smith and Robert Emery, gave a splendid exhi- Nash, second base; Wanless, short bition, Sir Edward clearing the bars at stop; Quick, third base; Shaw, left Jack Nash, Fred Simmons fine horses, made the jumps easily at 5 feet 8 inches.

at the International Show in London, England, when he took first honors by making 7 feet 4 inches.

Y. M. C. A. Drill Corps. An exhibition by the Y. M. C. A. drill corps, under Physical Director Sovereign, also pleased immensely, the boys going through some turns that would show up favorable with the "strong men" acts of vaudeville. The team was composed of Mr. Sovereign, Roy Burridge, Gordon Thompson, Fraser Elliott, Clyde Nicholson and George

The band of the Seventh Regiment and Sergt. McDonald's pipers were on hand, and provided a very fine musical programme. In fact, the pipers brought all the Scotch of the picnickers to the surface, and a number of them danced on the platform to the strains of Piper McDonald's pipes. Mr. Robert Rowan and the Riddell children were among those who performed. The Largest Family. The largest family contest brought out two contestants, or, rather, two sets of contestants, Mr. and Mrs. Burt, of Campbell street, winning easily from Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Moulton, of Laura street. The winners took the platform with eight children, the secands exhibiting five.

Motorcycle Race.

The motorcycle race created a great deal of excitement, Mr. Will Tite and Mr. Johnston finishing three miles in what was practically a dead heat. Mr. Johnston was given a hair-line decision. He crossed the wire in six minites and twenty seconds.

The race was a close one from start to finish. Tite, who ran into the fence with a two-cylinder machine in making the turn at the south end of the stretch in last year's race, hugged the pole and saved a great deal of ground, while Johnston, who appeared to have a faster machine, lost a great deal in making sweeping turns.

Fach contestant had a one-cylinder

Pie-Eating Contest. Perhaps the greatest fun of the afwas caused by the pie-eating contest. About three hundred leatherstomached East London youths went of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross, 480 Enginto the scramble, about thirty com-ing out with leather-covered pies. A. German, 874 Dundas street; 3, Don-

AT BIG PICNIC A burlesque baseball match ed teams of members of the tion was another fun-maker. A Ball Match.

The real ball match, however, was more interesting to the merchants, as Girls' r. on the result depended whether or not Helen Mitchell, 2 Mary Vincent, 3 the team composed of players of the north side of Dundas street would annex the trophy for all time. They have won the championship games at the lawrence Dume, 2 Llewelyn Brill, 3 Lawrence Dume, 3 Lawrence Dume, 2 Llewelyn Brill, 3 Lawrence Dume, last two picnics, but yesterday they were "short-circuited," the south siders making four round trips on the diamond to one of the hitherto unbeaten champions. However, as this has been a rough week on unbeaten champions, the losers took their defeat well and are waiting till next summer to bring home the silverware.

Scribe for Umpire.

Mr. J. H. Fowler, of The Advertiser scored once more with the residents umpired, and he was some "kink of the diamond" at that. In the opening round he had his eye on one "Clucker" Dunn, who attempted to score without touching the third sack. The offender was called out and was threatened with indefinite suspension or a heavy fine if he talked back.

Ernie Shaw was the only north side man to make the full trip, while Bert Simmons covered the course twice. and Brooks and Vincent scored on each on behalf of the winners.

The teams lined up as follows: North Side-Falkner, catcher; Powers, pitcher; Richards, first field: Simmons, centre field, and Ar
