The unauthorized insertion of this advertisement picture up in arms because of their treatment. Division court ought to have been held, and many important cases were to come up. County Judge Finkle is in Toronto, but before going he is said to have left word with he is said to have left word with the clerk of the court, Mr. Francis, that he had arranged with either Judge Macbeth or Judge Elliott of London to take his place. Ass as-sembled in the court at 10 o'clock yes-terday morning but no judge appeared. After waiting two hours and endeavor-ing to get into touch with one of the judges the lawyers determined to dismiss the witnesses until today, when it is expected Judge Finkle will when it is expected Judge Finkle will be home. The lawyers consider this treatment discourteous, and develop-ments are expected today.
