Weddings of the Month

THOMPSON—ARMSTRONG. Special to The Advertiser.

Florence, Sept. 6 .- On Saturday afternoon at four o'clock a pretty event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Armstrong, Florence, When the marriage of their daughter Mayme to Mr. David D. Thompson of Oakdale was solemnized, the Rev. J. Bulton of Florence Methodist Church officiating. Quantities of flowers were arranged throughout the rooms, the ceremony being per-formed under an arch of evergreens her father, were a becoming gown of sand canton crepe trimmed with radium lace, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Madge Armstrong of Walkerville presided at the piano, wearing a pretty frock of nile green canton of Sarnia piece.

where a wedding dinner was served, covers being laid for thirty guests. The happy couple left by motor for Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride traveling in a suit of navy blue poiret twill with hat to match, and mink for On their return, they and mink fur. On their return, they will reside on the groom's farm in Dawn and will be at home to their friends after October 1.

McCARTY-REID.

Chesley, Ont., Sept. 6.—A pretty day, September 5, at high noon, when wedding took place at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 4, at the home of Mr. Alice, daughter of Mr. Bernard W. Stanley of Lucan, to Mr. J. Archibald their only daughter, Ethel May, became the bride of Mr. Wilberforce J. E. Tom of Goderich, Ont. The McCarty of Lindsay, Ont. Rev. Major bride who was given in marriage by McCarty of Lindsay, Ont. Rev. Major bride, who was given in marriage by Graham, pastor of Geneva Presbyter-her father, wore a charming gown of her father, looked lovely in white georgette, with pearls and crystals, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's shell pink, and Dr. Mary I. Tom of gift to the bride was a white fox fur. Goderich, as bridesmaid, in lavender, to the bridesmaid a silver mesh bag, were the bride's attendants. The to the bridesmaid a silver mesh bag, and to the organist a hand-painted flower bowl. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Halliday, was dressed in Nile green satin with large picture hat, and carried a bouquet of Sunset roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Herbert Wood of Lindsay, Ont. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was luncheon was served at the home of played by Mrs. A. Oliver of Hamilton, and during the signing of the regis-ter Mr. Harry Brown sang "All Joy Be Thine" and "Oh Promise Me." The robm was attractively decorated with palm ferns, roses and gladioli. A dainty buffet luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. McCarty left by motor for Port Mc-Nicoll, and will take a boat trip to and to the flower girl a necklace.

In 1892

Port Arthur and Duluth. HEALEY-McCORMACK. Special to The Advertiser.

After the ceremony the bride and groom led the way to the lawn, where a wedding dinner was served, represented by Mr. Ordan McCormack, of Bridgeburg, brother of the bride. Rev. Father Gaetz officiated.

TOM—STANLEY.
Special to The Advertiser.
Lucan, Sept. 7. — Holy Trinity Church, Lucan, beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, was the scene Chesley, Ont., Sept. 6.—A pretty day, September 5, at high noon, when The bride, who was given away by orange blossoms, and carried a bou-er father, looked lovely in white quet of roses and lily of the valley. white chiffon taffeta with veil and Wyoming, Sept. 7 .- One of the pretplace Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight, Second Line, Plympton, when their youngest daughter, Flora Evelyn, was united in marriage to Mr. Reid Anderson, son of Mr. J. D. Anderson of Plympton. The bride, who was given away by her father, took her place beneath an arch of nink and pearls; to the best main, a tiepin set with pearls.

The spacious parlors where the ceremony took place were attractively decorated in white, the large arch place beneath an arch of pink and white streamers and wedding bell. She looked lovely in a gown of white net was caught with a coronet of net was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried was decorated in pink and white, and a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Jean Anderson, sister of the Mrs. Fields, brother and sister of oses and maiden-hair fern. Miss Jean Anderson, sister of the groom, made a charming bridesmaid, tiest of early fall weddings took place Wednesday afternoon at the was best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace set with diamonds and pearls; to the bridesbeing gay with streamers of white, and banked with an abundance of

WESTERN

WESTERN

we first offered the public our Millions now use it with great satisfaction. Have you tried it?

Two

SHERLOCK-MANNING DOHERTY PIANOS

THIS YEAR THERE ARE TWO SHER-LOCK-MANNING AND DOHERTY PIANO EXHIBITS AT THE LONDON WESTERN

Just to the right of the main building entrance at the same old stand, you'll find a full array of Sherlock-Manning Pianos of every type and size, the old favorites and the very latest additions to the piano and

In the northeast corner of the Manufacturers' Building you'll find the Sherlock-Manning and Doherty Process Exhibit, showing all raw materials in their different stages that go into the making of these pianos. You also see several operations of piano manufacture being carried on.

This is a very interesting exhibit and everyone who sees it will realize the reason that Sherlock-Manning and Doherty Pianos are known as "Canada's Biggest Piano Value," and why their sales show such a steady increase not only in this country, but all over the world.

> SHERLOCK-MANNING · 204 Century Piano ·

The Piano worthy of your Home

You Save By Buying From The Makers.

Remember

We always sell all the pianos on exhibition at the fair at factory prices. Here's your opportunity to have one of these wonderful instruments sent direct to your home.

MADE IN CANADA.

SHERLOCK-MANNING PIANO CO.

Mrs. Tom left for Toronto to take the St. Lawrence and Saguenay trip. Guests were present from Goderich, Toledo, Buffalo, Stratford, Toronto, London and Listowel.

gowned in ashes of roses georgette crepe, and carried a bouquet of Sunburst roses and sweet peas, while Mr. Stewart Smith, cousin of the groom, acted as best man.

Mrs. Smith, sister of the bride, presided at the piano, and during the signing of the register Miss Anne Brownlee sang. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on a trip for points east, the bride traveling in a navy blue poiret twill suit, with hat to match. On their return they will reside on the townline. MONCK-LITTLER. On Saturday, Sept. 1, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Littler, Salisbury street, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season when their youngest daughter, Eva, was united in marriage to Edward E. Monck, son of Mr. Ernest Monck of Hamilton, the Rev. P. E. Nichol reside on the townline CORNISH—BLATCHORD.
Special to The Advertiser.
St. Thomas, Sept. 7.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at Grace Anglican Church, 92nd street, Cleveland, on

After the ceremony and signing of the register a reception was held at the home of Frank Morrall, after which the bride and groom left via steamship "Colonial" for Port Stanley and thence to their home in South

Yarmouth. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cottle and daugh-ter. Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. George

The Rev. C. L. L. Couzens of Bothwell, formerly of Arkona, was the

The bridal party entered the par-with touches of net and lace, was bridesmaid. Mr. Wilfred Fuller of ly decorated in white, the large arch

under which the ceremony took place autumn flowers. The dining-room bride, rendered appropriate

The bride's traveling costume was a smart suit of navy blue, trimmed with braid, and chic hat to match.

The happy couple left amid showers of confetti on a few weeks' motor trip to London, Brantford, Toronto, Whitby, Bowmanville, Niagara Falls, St. Thomas, and other places. After their return, Mr. and Mrs. Wight will reside at "Maple Shade" homestead.

Seaforth, Sept. 6.—A quiet but entered the room on the arm of her pretty wedding was solemnized at St. can Church, 92nd street, Cleveland, on September 4, when Miss Annie Blatchord, Cleveland, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Cornish, of Sparta, Ontario, by Rev. Jennings. The bride was given away by Mr. George Cottle, while Mrs. Thomas Cottle attended the bride as matron of honor and Mr. Thomas Cottle acted as groomsman. The wedding hymn was played by Mr. Cyril Cottle.

After the ceremony and signing of madge Armstrong of Walkerville presided at the piano, wearing a pretty frock of nile green canton crepe, while little Helen Armstrong of Sarnia, niece of the bride, daintily dressed in white net, carried the ring in a basket of sweet peas. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver mesh beg; to the pianist a bar pin, and to the flower girl a necklace.

After the ceremony a dainty wed-ding breakfast was served, the bride's mother wearing a becoming gown of navy charmeuse sattin. For traveling the bride donned a smart navy suit with fawn hat and shoes. After a honeymoon spent in Hamilton and Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Monck will reside in the city. honeymoon spent in Hamilton and Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Monck will reside in the city.

MANNING-HOWATT.

wedding took place on Saturday, September 1, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D.
Howatt, Hillcrest farm, Seaforth, when their elder daughter, Lila Marguerite, was united in progress. guerite, was united in marriage to Percy J. Manning, elder son of the Percy J. Manning, elder son of the late Joseph and Mrs. Manning of Londesboro, the Rev. W. D. McDonald of Egmondville officiating.

The bride entered the drawing-room upon the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Sadie Howatt, sister of the bride, and looked very sweet in a frock of navy canton crepe, G. Wight of the Second. Bosanquet. sister of the bride, and looked very younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Alber sweet in a frock of navy canton crepe, G. Wight of the Second, Bosanquet with embroidered net veil, and car-ried a bouquet of Ophelia and Sweetheart roses, her only ornament being the groom's gift, a handsome string of pearls. The groom's gift to the planist was an ivory clock.

After the ceremony the bride led the way to the dining-room, which bride, who was given away by her was prettily decorated for the oc-casion in pink and white, and a gown of white duchess satin, with dainty luncheon was served by the panels of lace, and trimmings of bride's most intimate girl friends. pearls. She carried a bouquet Immediately after, the happy couple pale pink Sweetheart roses left on a motor trip through Western maiden-hair fern. Her bridal veil Ontario and the United States, the was also caught with a wreath of bride traveling in a smart gown of pale pink roses and fern.
gray tafetta, with shoes and hat to Little Ruby Fields, niece of the match, and a navy poiret twill wrap bride, in a dainty pale pink silk frock, with gray squirrel trimmings. On was a sweet little ring-bearer, carrytheir return, Mr. and Mrs. Manning ing a wee basket of asters and roses.
will reside at Londesboro.

ANDERSON—KNIGHT.

gowned in a King Tut gown. trimmed

ANDERSON-KNIGHT. Special to The Advertiser.

1923

DEVEN-NEAR. Special to The Advertise Melbourne, Sept. 7 .- A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Near, on Sept. at high noon, when their daughter Elizabeth became the bride of Mr. James Kennedy Deven of Syra-Mr. James Kennedy Deven of Syracuse. The bride wore a very becoming gown of gray canton crepe and was unattended. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Shoup.

The happy couple left for a trip east and on their return will reside at Syracuse, N. Y.

LA LRUE-EDWARDS. Special to The Advertiser Chatham, Ont., Sept. 7.—A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday at the home of the bride's parent.

399 Park avenue west, when in Victoria, eldest daughter of in Mrs. Richard Edwards, because bride of Leonard Eugene is eldest son of Mr. and Mrs.
La Lrue. The ceremony was formed by Rev. A. C. Calder.
The bride, who was given in manage by her father, looked charming a sown of white certain research. in a gown of white canton crepe and carried Ophelia roses. Her only ornament was a silver brooch, a gift of the groom. Miss Fannie La Lrue, ment was a silver brooch, a gift of the groom. Miss Fannie La Lrue, sister of the groom, and Miss Annie Edwards, were bridesmaids and wore yellow organdie. William Pettit of St. Thomas was best man. The flower girl, little Jean Young of Blen-heim Locked.

heim, looked pretty in yellow or-gandie, trimmed with black velvet Following the ceremony a buffet unch was served. The best man was presented with a gold fob, the brides-maids and pianist silver brooches, and the flower girl a gold locket and chain. Mr. and Mrs. La Lrue left on in trip to Alberta, the bride traveling in a black canton crepe gown with beaded trimmings and black hat. The ut-of-town guests were: Miss Bella salbraith of Ridgetown, Mrs. Charles Young and Miss Jean Young of Blen-heim, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Challis of Thamésville, Mr. and Mrs. Bent-ey Croft of Kent Bridge, and Miss Jean Pettit and Mr. William Pettit of St. Thomas

FERGUSON-FITCHETT. The home of Mr. and Mrs. True man Fitchett, 112 Mamelon street London, was the scene of a pretty wedding on September 1, when their only daughter, Etta Velma, was united in marriage to Mr. Neil A. C. Ferguson of Belmont. Promptly at 12 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," rendered by Mrs. Alfred Weldhen, Bel-

THE MUSICAL ART SOCIETY CHOIR

Later the couple left amid showers of confetti on a trip to Toronto, thence to the Thousand Islands and Montreal. The bride traveled in a becoming gown of brown canton crepe, hand-beaded and embroidered, feather pansies and silver brocade trimmings.
Guests were present from Norwich, Warwick, London and Bel-gin her new duties the first of October. Miss Davis graduated from Western last spring. mont, the bridal party entered the parlor, the bride leaning on the arm of her father.

The bride looked charming in her

MISS RUTH DAVIS,

laughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H.

Davis, Princess avenue, who has been pointed a member of the Western niversity library staff, and will be-of Ophelia roses. Miss Marie Ferguson made a dainty ring-bearer dressed in pink organdy.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens and pink and white asters, from the center of which hung a white bell. For the occasion the home was made beautiful with gladioli and asters. Rev. Mr. Stephens of Mapleton performed the ceremony.

The bridal party then led the way The bridal party then led the way to a marquee erected on the lawn, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The tables also were decorated by lovely bouquets of asters and gladioli.

The groom's gift to the bride was a tortoiseshell manicure set, to the ring-bearer a silver mesh-bag and to the pianist an Adam's community cake knife cake knife.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts of cut-glass and silver.

PEARSON-JOHNSON. Special to The Advertiser.

Sarnia, Sept. 7 .- A quiet wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Barnby at the Parker Street Methodist manse Thursday evening. Waukegan became the bride of Peter The bride looked charming in her gown of ivory charmeuse, and wore the customary veil arranged in bandeau style. She carried a shower ORGANIZE MISSION BAND. Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Sept. 7 .- "A Call To Worship" was the topic given by Mr. Dan McKim at the first meeting of was organized at the close of the near future will be made at this vice-president, will have charge

WORTLEY ROAD M. C. Owing to the Fair, the opening the season of the Kent Bridge Ep- meeting of the Wortley Road Mothers worth League. Plans for the future were discussed, and a Mission Band Plans for a bazaar to be held in the MOTHER: - Fletcher's Castoria is a pleasant, harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared for Infants in arms and Children all ages.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chartteleters Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it

Serving You and Canada

While Life Insurance stands watch over your home to cover the mortgage; to provide a fund to care for your wife and educate your children if you should die, or to support yourself in your own old age if you live---it is aiding Canada's industrial and commercial prosperity.

The trust funds formed by the payment of your premiums are invested in Government and municipal securities to build schools, roads, drains and bridges; to provide hospitals and welfare institutions; to establish justice, law and order---as well as being invested in mortgages, agriculture, transportation, industrial and other enterprises that go to develop Canada and make it a better place in which to live.

"Life Insurance serves as it waits."

Buy life insurance for the service it will render you individually, and the national service will follow. Seek the services of the life insurance representative, and he will advise how your life's program can be carried out even in the event of your premature death.

LIFE INSURANCE SERVICE.