People born on this date come under the sign of Leo, the Lion, and the governing planet is the sun. This is the only sign of the Zodiac This is the only sign of the Zodiac to be governed by the Sun, and accounts for the passion and impetuosity of these people.

They are kind, sympathetic, and magnetic to a great degree. They are emotional, very intuitive and are generally able by means of their intuition to escape the consequences of their actions.

When the true individuality of Leo holds sway, these people have a noble ideal, with a loyal love, confident, pure and abundant. Having minds which are practical, philosophical and spiritual combined, they radiate a substance which is a powerful influence of good over others.
