Secretary of Presbyterian Association Says Church To Remain.

Special to The Advertisar. Toronto, June 27 .- With the pri ciple of the church union bill adopted by the Dominion parliament, the antiresbyterian Association over the outcome of the long struggle, but they point out that only the preamble of the bill has been adopted. contend that the passing of the leg islation does not stop the litigation instituted, and also that the unionists have yet to run the gauntlet of the Ontario, Quebec, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia legisla.

Challenge Validity.

The antis are challenging the constitutionality of the bill, and this question, they say, has yet to be decided by the courts. "In the first place," said F. W. McNamara, secretary of the Presbyterian Church Association, when asked what he thought about the issue the church union bill has not passed The preamble only has passed, but I suppose you can take it for granted that the whole bill will pass." "What about the litigation that was started by the association? Does this put you out of court?"
