BUILDING A TOOTH

Good teeth are built out of vital foods. Building a tooth is not the simple process it seems. Nature regards it so important that she takes a long time to perfect one.

February is one of the hardes evening.

Miss Elliott represented the fourth is a month of cold, blustery days that wiss Elliott represented the fourth grade of the Ingersoll high school and competed against Miss Evelyn Duckworth, St. Thomas, who won second prize and Miss Marie Gilmour of Woodstock, who took third prize.

Miss Gilmour took as her topic, "Pioneers of Ontario." She was very logical, but her delivery was criticized. Miss Duckworth spoke on "Oriental Immigration," giving her address with impassioned forcefulness, and quoting a great deal of poetry. She was criticized for her ending. Miss Elliott on "Greece, Ancient and Modern," was convincing in delivery. Her gestures were varied and she treated her subject in a humorous vein which brought applause.

Miss Eileen Dowler was chairman, while Miss Margaret Benjafield gave several well received readings. The judges were Mrs. A. Roberts, St. Thomas, Mrs. McGilł, Ingersoll, and Mr. Collins of London.
