Lecture Delivered by Capt. Wolley on the Chinese.

Many Reasons Advanced for the Exclusion of the Chinese.

Clive Phillipps-Wolley lectured on the Mongolian question at Semple's hall last night. It was the opening lecture of the series to be given to the members of the Victoria West Reading Room association, and Mr. H. D. Helmeken was in the chair. The audience was a small one. Mr. Wolley said: This Mongolian question is one which deals with the future. The neeple who will take sides.

The Chinese have now only to be here three months; can get the franchise, and then what will your position be. If sufficient come in they will dominate the province, and voting as their companies bid them, they will swamp anybody and anything.
