REGARDED WITH GRAVIT TWO MORE WALL STREET FIRMS GO TO THE WALL.

Pick & Hatch and Dimock & Co.-Metropolitan Bank Resumes—Run on Other Banks—The Situation Not Encour-feature in the financial panic to-day was the failure of Fisk & Hatch, and A. R. Dimock & Co., Wall street stock brokers. The Metropolitan bank resumed payment. There was a run on a number of other banking institutions, but in every instance all demands were met. The situation is still regarded as one of great gravity. Fears are entertained for many firms who yet appear to be strong. One broker says that the suspended firms will have plenty of company soon. In fact, he said, we may have another Black Friday. Several other gentlemen expressed the opinion that there was trouble to be anticipated in the future owing to the scarcity of money and a lack of confidence among the financial men. It is feared there will be trouble in the oil market tomorrow. New York, May 15 .- The principal

FIFTH YEAR.

Fisk & Hatch suspended at 2.45. The firm was composed of A. S. Hatch, president stock exchange, and Harvey Fisk. They have been the heaviest dealers in government bonds on the street, and have generally been considered a staunchy conservative and thoroughly reliable firm. Their suspension came like a thunderbolt on the exchange, the immediate result being a decline of from 1 to 5 per cent in prices. The weakness in the government. prices. The weakness in the government bond market is explained by the suspension. The suspension was not appropried. sion. tinued decline in the market price of secur-ities, the weakening of confidence in finan-cial matters and the heavy drainage on their deposits and requesting those having claims against them to extend them such claims against them to extend them such at consideration and indulgence as they may need and may be in power to grant.

A promident broker said, in regard to Fisk & Hafch, the position of the firm is very peculiar, owing to the fact that they have only government bonds, and cannot borrow money upon them except at most exorbitant rates of interest. Wednesday they borrowed half a million on governments and paid 2 par cent interest for a day and paid 2 per cent interest for a day The loan was only allowed to stand

The contemplated extension of the line will be thus prevented, at least for a time.

One of the officers of the Bankers' and Merchants' telegraph company said to day that the failure of Dimock would only temporarily affect the company.

Condition of the Banks. Metropolitan bank resumed thi morning. Only a few persons drew out their money. Vice-president Jacques has been elected president. The bank cleared all right.

A few minutes before noon to-day the dors of the Metropolitan bank were thrown open. A number of depositors hurried eagerly in to draw their money. Everything passed off quietly and in an orderly manner. The officials had prothe least.

There was a run this morning on the Irish Emigrant Savings bank, about 200 depositors withdrawing their accounts. The bank was not embarrassed.

The Atlantic State bank of Brooklyn did not resume to-day. Some of its depositors are embarrassed and a number of them gathered at the institution to-day. They became very indignant when they could not ings banks to day. They were prepared for the run and were not disturbed.

There were no unusual withdrawals from the national banks. The Situation Reviewed. The Post says: There was a general and decided rebound from the depression and reaction was in order. The result of these combined influences was that before 12 o'clock there was a general advance fish cultural association finished its thirover last night's prices of from 1½ to 6 per teenth annual session to-day. of the University of Toronto. It is situated upon a green sward at the top of Mc-Caul street, and is one of the many public and educational establishments in Toronto that adorns the head of some of our principal thoroughfares. Wyckliffe is the low church college of the church of England, and since its inception five years ago haturned out thirteen graduates.

The closing exercises in connection with the fifth convocation were held last night.
The lecture-room and library were thrown into one apartment, which was crowded.

About two-thirds of the assembly were ladies. Col. Gzwoski occupied the chair and beside him sat Rev. Principal Sheradon. Among the visitors and active friends of the college who occupied seats at the front were Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. S. H. Blake, J. K. Kerr, Principal Caven, Prof. Gregg, Prof. McLaren, N. W. The following were specially and honorably mentioned, having been largely occupied this year with work in University college: H. P. Hobson, A. T. Deudney, J. C. Robinson, while A. C. Miles has this year been entirely devoting himself to the completion of his honor course in classics.

The proceedings were opened with the hymn—

"Sow in the morn thy seed," and Col. Gzowski made an address. He congratulated the friends of the college on the fact that although the building was yot by any means as large as its growing necessities required, yet there was not a farthing of debt on it. [Applause.] He was also happy to state that the endowment fund was steadily increasing and the maintenance fund had been eq al to all their wants. He thanked the friends in and out of Toronto for their liberal support, and hoped soon to see the contemplated
additions to the college completed.

Hon. Edward Blake made an address

additions to the college completed.

Hon. Edward Blake made an address full of hope for the future of Wyckliffe, and he adverted to the great good which resulted, in his opinion, to the young men of all theological colleges who were brought together in the halls of the provincial college for their secular training. Mr. Blake said that in addition to an increase in the staff of professors, an addition 45 feet long, with 17 bedrooms upstairs, was an immediate requirement. He stated that three gentlemen had promised $1000 each for this purpose, and it remained tor other friends to subscribe the balance. Although Wyckliffe was primarily intended to supply the nome dioceses, yet its graduates were to be found in Huron, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, New York state, and now they were in demand in far-off Jamaics. [Cheers.]

Dr. Daniel Wilson, in an interesting address, called attention to the fact that this month the 500th anniversary of the great proto-reformer Wyckliffe (after whom the college was named) was now being commemorated in England. He spoke of the immense advantage of the students of Knox college, McMaster hall and even St. Michael's (said the doctor with emphasis) meeting together in the university of the province. "It was important," said the doctor, "that the young theologians should be delivered from the narrow cloister life of a denominational college."

—A. H. Campbell and S. H. Blake made the cone uding addresses. Mr. Campbell hoped soon to see the endowment fund amount to $50,000, and Mr. Blake would take a contract to-morrow to build the needed additions, so confident was he that amount to $50,000, and Mr. Blake would take a contract to-morrow to build the needed additions, so confident was he that the money would soon be forthcoming. He intimated that the young men of the diocese would be expected to do a great deal towards raising the amount required, and he added that the "old ones would help them." [Applause.]

The principal announced that he had conferred with the principals of Knox college and McMaster hall and they hoped to hold a fitting commemorative Wyckliffe anniversary service in the autumn.

Not quite twenty miles from Toronto, in Not quite twenty miles from Toronto, in a northeasterly direction, is the village of Claireville, Humber postoffice. To the trav-eler, Claireville presents no special feature of interest save a very pretty Anglican church. On Sunday last, however, something occurred near this village which, if it can be perpetu-ated, will render Claireville about as famous ated, will render Claireville about as rainous as would the discovery of a gold mine in the vicinity. To explain. A chicken was hatched. Nothing extraordinary? Walt. It had three legs, and the funny feature of the down-covered animal is that the third leg grows where the tail is usually found. The proposed name for this new style is the "yard" chicken, between the three feet. It cannot be said cause it has three feet. It cannot be said that this was an un-tow-ard event, for there mer sun is to spread a piece of green silk over the toes of the extra foot—and the bird has a fricassee will be so rejoiced at the idea of get-ting chickens with three legs to pick instead demand the Claireville article. And there is one thing about this chicken story that is ther odd: it is true. Hence we let
