

The Missionary Review of the World for June comes to hand with its ninety-six pages crowded with encouraging news, inspiring discussions, and altogether interesting and instructive articles on a great variety of topics from writers and thinkers, in all parts of the world. If literature such as this were supported by Christian people generally, the day when "every creature" would hear the Gospel preached would undoubtedly be hastened. Its six well edited departments, with valuable articles from all over the world, bring together each month the current missionary thought of the Christian Church, of all denominations, in every field. Published monthly, at $2.00 per year, by Funk & Wagnalls Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York.

The Illustrated News of the World (New York edition of The Illustrated London News) The cost of this edition, the exact counterpart of the English publication, is only $5 a year. The paper, illustrations, and reading matter are all good, and worthy of a place in homes where high-class periodicals are appreciated.

Religious Review of Reviews. The Christian Literature Co., 13 Astor Place, New York.

The May number to hand, contains a good portrait of the Hon. and Rt. Rev. Dr. Pelham, ex-Bishop of Norwich, a good article on Imperial Federation, a description of an Australian parish, an article on the societies for producing Christian literature, Home Missions of the Church, philanthropic Institutions (illustrated), the new Nonconformist Theology, and many other subjects of importance and present interest.

Germania: A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester, New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance for students of that tongue.

Newbery House Magazine: Griffiths, Farren, Okeden & Welsh, London, England. This magazine comes every month as a welcome visitor. Its articles are usually on themes of interest to Churchmen, but frequently are of a general nature, instructive for all. Numerous illustrations from time to time are found in it.
