

MACKAY OF UGANDA.*

BY THE REV. W. H. EVANS.

REV. ALEXANDER M. MACKAY, D.D.

WE are living in what is pre-eminently the missionary age of the Church. Never since apostolic times did the evangelization of the world engage the attention of so many minds as it does to-day. A number of circumstances have contributed to this. God has sent large numbers of the heathen into Christian lands. Their presence has awakened inquiries in regard to the condition of the people in their native land.
