NOTHING is more nerve-restoring in the summer time than a Hammock. A half hour in the Hammock RESTS one. A Hammock or two should be part of every household's equipment, like the bath and the beds. When you are tired right out, run down, nervous and hot, it means you must have either a holiday or a Hammock. We advise both. Take a holiday and take a Hammock with you. At any rate keep a Hammock handy in your home. Every home should have a verandah and every verandah should have a Hammock.

To encourage the Hammock habit we make the following special prices for mail order customers:
