

Licentiates, three hundred and sixty nine; Candidates for the Ministry, five hundred and forty-three; Ministers, two thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven; Churches, three thousand six hundred and eighty four; Licensures, one hundred and forty-nine; Ordinations, one hundred and seven; Installations, one hundred and forty-one; Pastoral relations dissolved, one hundred and one; Churches organized, one hundred and seven; Churches dissolved, nineteen; Ministers received from other denominations, twenty-four; Ministers dismissed to other denominations, thirteen; Churches received from other denominations, four; Churches dismissed to other denominations, two; Ministers deceased, twenty-nine; Members added on examination, thirteen thousand six hundred and eighty; Members added on certificate, nine thousand one hundred and seventy-four; Total number of Communicants reported, three hundred thousand eight hundred and fourteen; Adults baptized, three thousand six hundred and seventy-nine; Infants baptized, thirteen thousand four hundred and thirty-six; Amount contributed for Congregational purposes, $1,821,252; Amount contributed for Boards of the Church and disabled ministers, $492,384; Amount contributed for Miscellaneous purposes, $211,527; Whole Amount contributed, $2,525,163.

FIELDS WHITE TO HARVEST, by the Rev. R. H. Beattie.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF GIVING, by the Rev. P. D. Gurley, D. D.

A PLEA FOR SYMPATHY on behalf of the Ministry, by the Rev. W. S. White, D. D.

These form Nos. 248-250 of the Board's Tracts and are all excellent.

Of the Board's "series for youth" we have also to acknowledge the following:

THE WONDERFUL LAMP, or Light for the darkest path. 18mo. pp. 339.

With some interesting information regarding the history of lamps, this little work in a pleasing narrative exhibits the excellence of the Scripture, as "a lamp to the feet and a light to the path" of the weary traveller through the darkness of the present life, till he reach the brightness of eternal day.

MARY REED, 18mo. pp. 314.

ALICE ROSEDALE, or the power of a consistent Christian life, 18mo. pp. 186.

Two interesting narratives, the first of a child losing a pious mother in early life, and having a drunken father, illustrative of the kindness of God in providing for such; the second according to its title, and showing the power of godliness in deeds of usefulness.

THE LOST KEY, by the author of "the little water cress sellers," 18mo. pp. 252.

A little volume which might have been entitled "temptation," full of salutary warning to the young.