

couple of pages of common prayers in English are give in this issue, as they are useful to the Indian readers as well as to the other subscribers.

As it is the Month of the Sacred Heart, a picture of the Sacred Heart appears in page 128, and the Promises of Our Lord to Blessed Mary Margaret Alacoque appear in page 129.

The Hymn to the Holy Eucharist on page 130, and the "Pange Lingua" on page 142, are reproduced from the last June number of the "Wawa," so that the Indians may have them at hand when needed, during the year.

On page 131 appears the engraving of the Basilica of the Sacred Heart, at Montmartre, Paris, France, which has cost already thirty million francs, or six million dollars. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given twice a day in the Basilica, and the Blessed Sacrament remains exposed, day and night, the whole year round, while worshippers take their place in succession, to offer their prayers and supplications for the triumph of the Church.

Two more pages of Bishop Durieu's New Testament in Chinook appears in this number. The whole Bible History in Chinook will soon be complete, when it will be possible to publish it separate in one volume, at a reasonable price.

Pages 134-141 contains the balance of the story of the Holy House of the Blessed Virgin, which interests the Indians so much.

THE WAWA SHORTHAND.

NOTE.—For practising in Shorthand, pencils are more convenient than pen and ink.

One can learn the "Wawa" Shorthand in one to three hours, that means it will not take more than that to get acquainted with the system of shorthand, to learn the alphabet and the way to connect the letters together. Some learn quicker than others, and see the ways and advantages of shorthand in much less time than others.

Do not expect to attain in a few days' study a speed of 100 words a minute or more. It takes practice and considerable practice too, to attain such a speed. Do not think also that because you have not attained such a speed in writing shorthand, that it is impossible to attain it. Everybody is not qualified to acquire a speed of 150 words a minute; but everybody, by steady practice, will attain sufficient skill to be pleased with.

"Kamloops Wawa" will try to show in an early issue how the "Wawa" Shorthand is at least five times shorter to write than common long hand, yet a beginner will not at once acquire such proficiency: we have been so
