CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION.

The first convention of the Glengarry County Union of Y. P. S. C. E. was held in Maxville Town Hall, on the 3rd and 4th inst, and, for the first of its kind to be held in the county, was a grand success, over 100 delegates being present. Under the able management of the president, the Rev. A. K. McLennan, of Dalhousie Mills, every thing passed off, not only smoothly, but admirably. Good papers were given on the working of the different committees, and the papers on all the subjects were excellent. The singing under the leadership of Mr. F. McRae, of St. Elmo, accompanied by the organists, Miss Nettie McEwen and Miss Anna McDougald, was grand; the beautiful Christian Endeavor and other appropriate hymns being sung with a heartiness and feeling that was inspiring. A well-rendered duet was also given by Mrs. A. McArthur, of Martintown. The decorations of the hall were exquisite, a mingling of flowers, flags, mottoes, drapery and evergreens making it look very pretty. The local committee and entertainers fairly outdid themselves. The programme was varied and good, and was carried out with great spirit and punctuality, almost every speaker expected being present. The addresses of welcome by Revs. McCallum and Cormack, of Maxville, and reply by Rev. M. McLennan, of Kirkhill, were humorous and appropriate, while Rev. Mr. Graham, on "International Bible Reading," Miss McIntosh, on "Christian Endeavor Fellowship," Rev. Mr. McLaren, on "Missions," Rev. T. S. McWilliams, Montreal, on "The Pledge," Mrs. McCallum and Miss L. McDonell, on "Junior Work," and the president in his retiring address each gave the audience a treat worth going to hear, and the discussions were ably managed and were lively and instructive. The officers for the ensuing year are: Rev. J. Cormack, president; A. McInnis, 1st vice-president; Miss McCallum, 2nd vice-president; Miss May McDonell, Rec. Sec.; Miss McLennan, Cor. Sec.; Mr. Elder, Treas. These, with the presidents of the 14 societies now existing, form the Executive Committee, and the next convention will be held in Lancaster. The convention closed with a solemn Consecration service and brought out with great force the truth, that though working in different places and under various names, still we are all one in Christ Jesus.
