

Embroidered Shirt Waists.

The craze for dress embroidery seems to have no end, and there is apparently no article of milady's wardrobe which is not thus embellished in some form or other. The shops are showing most beautiful shirt waist sets, but alas for those with a moderate allowance, the cost is in proportion to the loveliness. We have succeeded in finding some pretty shirt waist designs, which can be very easily and quickly embroidered by anyone with a knowledge of the simplest embroidery stitches, will not cost nearly so much as the ones shown in the shops, and will have the advantage of being hand work. In working these designs it is necessary to have a well twisted silk, somewhat heavy in character, which will bear much handling and repeated laundering. For this there is nothing better than Corticelli Mountmellick Embroidery Silk, which is furnished in four sizes, F, FF, G, and H, in shades of Delft Blue and White 2002. In the first three sizes it is also made in Green 177, 179, Red 1063, 2065, and Gold 2110, 2112.

Design No. 14 shows a waist of fine white linen embroidered solely in Corticelli Mountmellick Embroidery Silk, White 2002. It is a very simple scroll design embroidered in Chain stitch with size FF, and with the bands and front further embellished with French knots and various fancy stitches, all very plainly shown by the stamping.

The other design, No. 13, shows an arrangement of bowknots and scrolls, all worked in a similar manner to the waist just described. This design comes
