

of Toronto, has been favorably mentioned by the commander-in-chief of the British forces at Saloniki for his distinguished services. Dr. Wishart has had a most varied experience and is now in Palestine with General Allenby.

OBITUARY

G. L. SINCLAIR, M.D.

The late Professor Sinclair was at one time in charge of the chair of anatomy in Halifax Medical College, and later on became professor of nervous and mental diseases. He was also Dean of the college for some years. He was born at Norfolk, Virginia, 65 years ago. He graduated from Columbia University in 1872. He was an excellent lecturer and teacher. In 1898 he was appointed inspector of humane institutions for Nova Scotia, and was responsible for many reforms in the jails and asylums of the Province. He also urged the establishment of an institution for the care of the feeble-minded. He was president of the Provincial Medical Society, and represented the Government on the Medical Board. As the superintendent of the asylum he founded the nurses' training school. Through ill-health he retired a few years ago. He died on 7th October, 1917, from an attack of pneumonia.

JOHN McRUER, M.D.

Dr. McRuer graduated from Toronto in 1907, and practised in Huntsville, Ont., for some time. He was born in Ayr, Ont. After a lingering illness he died in Denver, Colorado, on 31st October, 1917.

CHARLES MERRILL SMITH, M.D.

Dr. Smith died at Alberni, B.C., last October. He was born in 1848, and graduated from the University of Toronto in 1870. At one time he practised at Sault Ste. Marie.

ROBERT COLLISON, M.D.

Dr. Collison, of Edmonton South, died on 20th October, 1917, at the age of 73. He graduated from McGill in 1878, and practised for some time in New York. He went West many years ago and located in the village of Stratheona. On account of ill-health he retired a year ago. He is survived by his widow and adopted daughter.