General Assembly Journal FOR 1872.

A DAILY REPORT OF THE

Proceedings of the next General Assembly of the

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Which meets in Detroit ON MAY 16, 1872,

Will be published by the undersigned, uniform in size and price with those of former years.

It is probable that questions of unusual moment will come before this Assembly for discussion—relating to

More General and Systematic Giving; The Number and Management of our Boards; The Basis and Ratio of Representation in future Assemblies; Unemployed Ministers; Sustentation, etc.

Some of these subjects are exciting general attention outside of our denomination; and they are certainly matters of great practical importance, and of special interest to all intelligent members of the Presbyterian Church at this time.

Subscribers sending $1.00, and a two cent postage stamp in addition (on or before the 15th of May), will receive

THE JOURNAL AND ALSO A

UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD. HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press.

There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can do without. Many Magazines are accumulated. HARPER'S is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Home.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unexcelled by any other American publication. The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopaedia we can place in our libraries. HARPER'S MAGAZINE is a record of travel every where since the hour of its establishment. Livingstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa; Strain among the Andes and Ross Brown in the East; Speke on the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan—indeed, all recent travellers of note have sent their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography.

Subscriptions.—1871.

NEW NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR CANADA.

Prospectus of the CANADIAN MONTHLY AND NATIONAL REVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual life of the Canadian nation ought to have some organ in the form of a good periodical. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

In some measures they may have been premature; but it is believed that their failure has been mainly due to the want of a sufficiently strong and well-organized staff of writers, and of a fund sufficient to guarantee to contributors the fair remuneration, without which, as a multiplied experience proves, a periodical cannot be successfully carried on.

These requisites have now been effectually secured. The literary aid and material requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought without restriction, from all quarters—Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a specially Canadian character, such as, it is hoped, will enlist Canadian patriotism in its support.

Politics will be treated with the aim of infusing as much as possible of the historical and philosophical spirit into the popular discussion of political questions. Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim.

Mr. GOLDWIN SMITH has consented both to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine. Intending subscribers will please send us their names.

ADAM, STEVENSON & CO., Publishers, Toronto.

CLUB RATES: Monthly Periodical, of national value and interest, the Publishers offer the following advantageous terms for Clubs—Cash in advance. The postage, two cents per copy, is included in the following rates, each magazine being sent pre-paid from office of publication:—

One copy for one year.....$ 8 00 Two copies..... 5 00 Three..... 3 00 Five..... 13 00 Ten, and one to persons sending club 25 00

Letters containing remittances should be registered, and addressed ADAM, STEVENSON & CO., Publishers, Toronto.

TO ADVERTISERS. The Publishers would direct the attention of Advertisers to the importance of THE CANADIAN MONTHLY as a medium of advantageous advertising, being contributed to by the foremost native writers, and being destined to circulate in extensive circles of the reading population of the Dominion.

All advertisements should reach the Publishers by the 10th of each month. A schedule of rates for advertisements is prepared, and may be had of the Publishers.

IN ONE YEAR THE CHRISTIAN UNION

Has leaped to a circulation surpassed by only one Religious Journal in the United States, and that one over twenty-one years old.

WHY IS IT? BECAUSE, First, HENRY WARD BEECHER

is its Editor, and the Editorials, Star Papers, and Lecture-Room Talks are welcomed by thousands and thousands of Christians everywhere, who wait thoroughly and anxiously for the issues, and who have at heart the interest of the whole Church of Christ; while the paper is full of admirable reading matter on every live topic of the day, the Contributors being representative men of all denominations.

BECAUSE, Secondly, ITS FORM, Sixteen pages, large quarto, STITCHED AND CUT, is so convenient for reading, binding, and preservation, as to be a month and special merit in its favor, apart from its superior literary attractions.

BECAUSE, Thirdly, It is the Brightest and Most Interesting Religious Paper published, selected from by the Press of the entire country, more extensively than any other, the whole editorial work being in the hands of experienced and cultivated men.

BECAUSE, Fourthly, It has something for every member of the household. Admirable contributed and editorial articles, discussing all the great topics of the day; fresh information on unthought subjects; much matter of a high and pure religious tone; poems, household stories, and chat for the little ones.

BECAUSE, Fifthly, MARSHALL'S Household Engraving of Washington! A fine impression of which is presented to every subscriber to the paper, is a really superb work of art, a subject appealing to every American, and, as was said by

F. O. C. DANLEY, THE CELEBRATED ARTIST, "It is, beyond all question, the best head, engraved in line, yet produced in this country, as well as the finest copy of Stuart's portrait."

BECAUSE, Sixthly, A new and charming Serial, MY WIFE AND I; Or, HARRIET HENDERSON'S HISTORY. By HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, FREE FOR TWO MONTHS.

Send for Circulars with full particulars. All subscriptions, applications for specimen copies and agencies, etc., received and attended to by J. B. FORD & Co., Publishers, 39 Park Row, New York.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, AN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE,

Edited by J. G. HOLLAND. The Best of the American Monthlies.

"In the brilliant variety of its articles, in vigor, adelicity and richness of wood engravings; in purity of tone, and richness and ripeness of thought in the Editorial department it surpasses all contemporaries."

Terms for 1872: Subscription price $4. Including two back numbers (Nov. and Dec., 1871), $4 50. With all the back numbers of Vols. 1, 2 and 3, only $8 50. These contain more than 5,000 pages of the choicest illustrated literature—a whole library in itself.

Subscriptions are received by all Newsdealers and Bookellers at the above rates, and by SCRIBNER & CO., 60 Broadway, New York.

THE "NEW YORK TRIBUNE,"

FOR 1872. The consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humbling of Austria through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the slow and capitation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne and the substitution for them of a nation of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, and the House of Orange, under the leadership of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arising of Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her offer; postulated but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Byzantine Empire, to invest with profound interest the ever changing phases of the Old World. THE TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great events are in progress, or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand, and Nineteenth Century Liberty on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the conflict as destined to result in the triumph of a fairer and happier future for the tolling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the Government of our State has been revolutionized through an indirect triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party; that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and compelling to those worthiness and fidelity to wield it. To this beneficent and divinely directed movement THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the office of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its title to Equal Rights regardless of Colour has divested our current politics of half their bygone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, the equality of the human race, principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The very man to his own limbs and sinews, the equality of all citizens, the fundamental inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty until he forfeit it by crime—such are the broad and sacred foundations of our national edifice; and it is the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emancipation, and may fairly invoke the benediction of the judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—so extend the benefits and diffuse the blessings of civilization—to stimulate ingenuity to the production of new inventions for economizing Labour, and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the bosoms of Food and of Fabrics, of Grain and of Metals, and thus enhance the value of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanges between farmers and artisans—such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain tribute to progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially benefited in the Weekly and Semi-Weekly Editions, to which some of the best and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $300 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or other equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a Journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally to those engaged in the departments of Productive Labour. We spend more and more money on our columns each year, as our countrymen's generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that the issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State help us to make our journal better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE. Daily Tribune, Mail subscribers, $10 per annum. Semi-Weekly Tribune, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies or over, $3 each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time; or, if preferred, a copy of Recollections of a Busy Life, by Mr. Greeley.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. To Mail subscribers:— One copy one year, 52 issues.....$2 Fives copies one year, 52 issues..... 9

To One address, all at one post-office:— 10 copies.....$1 40 each. 20 copies..... 1 25 each. 30 copies..... 1 00 each.

To names of subscribers, all at one post-office:— 10 copies.....$1 60 each. 20 copies..... 1 35 each. 30 copies..... 1 10 each. And one extra copy to each club.

Persons entitled to an extra copy can, if preferred, have either of the following: postage prepaid:—Political Economy; Home; Fear Culture for Profit, by P. T. Quinn; the Elements of Agriculture, by Geo. E. Waring.

ADVERTISING RATES. Daily Tribune, 30c., 40c., 50c., 75c., and $1 per line. Semi-Weekly Tribune, 25 and 30 cents per line. Weekly Tribune, 25, 30, and 35 per line, according to position in the paper.

In making remittances always procure a draft on New York, or a Post-Office Money Order, if possible. Where neither of these can be procured, send the money, but always in a REGISTERED LETTER. The registration fee has been reduced to 15 cents, and the present registration system has been found by the postal authorities to be nearly an absolute protection against losses by mail. All postages are to be paid by the subscriber, when requested to do so. Terms cash in advance.
