

The public are respectfully informed that Mr. Samuel Adams is no longer the agent for the Free Press in Montreal.—Subscribers are requested to make their payments to Mr. D. Scarlett, who will call on them with receipts signed by the proprietor.

Those subscribers in Quebec, who have not paid Mr. Joseph Tardif, are requested to pay Mr. John Walley, who is encharged with the collection of the present quarter, and will present them a circular letter from the proprietor.

From all, the author most earnestly and respectfully solicits early and punctual payment, without which the work can not go on, or recover from the languishment under which it laboured during the late management. He aims not at profit. The interests of the cause he has espoused, and his own fame, are his objects; but his means will not permit him to proceed without the encouragement of the friends of the cause, or without ready payments in advance.

The Free Press is published every Thursday in Montreal, price 6 d. per No. or 5 s. 6 d. per quarter, or 22 s. per annum, payable quarterly in advance. Subscribers who do not reside in Montreal, will have to pay an additional price, adequate to the expense of conveyance.

Orders for the Free Press to be addressed to No. 26 St. Laurent-Street, Montreal. or No. 7, Palace-Street, Quebec.

Communications addressed to the editor, L. L. MACCULLOH, may be left at those places, or at the post-office, Montreal; or forwarded (post paid) to the proprietor, Mr. S. H. Wilcocke, Burlington, Vermont.

Editors of papers who exchange with the Free Press, are requested to direct their papers, to Burlington, Vermont, instead of to Montreal, where they are often delayed or lost.
