

has betrayed the ancient constitution of his country in Oshon and State, that is to force a revolution on the Queen, & compel her to break the oath she swore at her Coronation...

GREAT BRITAIN.

London, May 18.—Reverdy Johnson has written a note to the authorities at Southampton declining the proposed baronet on his behalf.

The House of Commons was lately indebted to Mr. Syon for a happy specimen of the Irish bull.

A battle took place at a Methodist Chapel in Yorkshire, England a few Sundays since.

The Dean of Aresch (Sir R. Phillimore) has refused to hear the charges of heresy brought against the Rev. W. J. E. Bennett of Frome.

The London Standard, in an article on the Alabama Claims Treaty, says: "The idea of awaiting further expressions for Parliament and Congress commits the business to indefinite postponement."

SCANDINAVIAN EMIGRATION.—A considerable number of emigrants have passed this week through Hull from Gotenburgh en route for Liverpool.

CONVENTS.—A Parliamentary return shows that on the 31st of March, 1869, there were 6,920 convicts undergoing sentences of penal servitude.

CASE OF SAURIN V. STARR AGAIN.—The Lord Chief Justice has granted a writ for a new trial, on the point of law, to which we called attention at the time of the trial.

THE MAYNOUTH CLAIM.—Parliament on Tuesday, in the morning sitting, wasted a good deal of valuable time, before Maynooth was recognized as a corporation.

To see the shameful sight
When children of one family
Fall out and scold and fight

THE ORANGE MEETINGS AND IRISH CHURCH BELL.—"Boo-hoo. I will scream and I won't be good, and the doll's nose, and Norway's a wicked story and I will do as I like, and I'll tell papa, so I will!

bill, and powder, and all manner of disagreeable things to be given and encountered.

CHURCH AND STATE.—The Rev. W. J. E. Bennett, in a sermon at Bristol on Sunday, rebuked his clerical brethren who dread the separation of Church and State.

HOW JOSEPH JOINED THE MORMONS.—A laughable story is floating respecting the proselytism of an old Welshman to the views of Brigham Young.

THE TIMES ON SUMNER'S SPEECH.—We have already exposed, over and over again, the fallacy of pretending that the Confederacy owed its existence as a belligerent Power to the Queen's Proclamation.

GRANT OF THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.—Washington, May 18.—In regard to the Alabama claims question and the so-called instructions given to Mr. Motley, it has been ascertained from very trustworthy sources that there is not any desire on the part of the President to open negotiations with England.

nation generally; and can anything be more unreasonable than to denounce Great Britain for not having fastened upon it that character which the United States Government so earnestly disavowed?

The 'Times' on Sebastianopol.—The interesting letters which describe the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Constantinople and the Crimea have had numberless readers even at this busy time of the year.

THE TRINITY.—The last number of The Medical Record publishes a lecture by Dr. John C. Dalton, which is eminently adapted to impress the mind with the danger of becoming infected by the use of pork unless measures be taken, in preparing the meat, to destroy the vitality of the worms.

will ever give the word which is to re-establish the fallen greatness of the city.

The London correspondent of the Boston Journal thinks that the Prince of Wales is not the scapegrace which some curious persons would have him to be.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRAT in an article on Canadian Emigration addressed to American Working-men, deprecates the approving tone with which some of the contemporaries refer to that immigration.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.

and that a movement will be made during the next session of Congress to amend the Occatation as to restrict their extraordinary powers in ratifying treaties.