in the life of any publication is, First: the condition of its subscription list; Second: its class of advertisers. The Commercial has never enjoyed a more prosperous period than the present—particularly in the matter of new subscribers. The reason is not far to seek.

This journal's paid circulation is larger than that of any weekly trade newspaper in Canada, and in the middle and Western Canada its circulation is larger than the combined circulation of all other trade newspapers.

Advertisers in the Commercial get RESULTS. If you want business from the rapidly growing and best buying provinces place an advertisement in—
