The refreshment committee: Miss Theresa Thomsen, Miss Emma Baillargeon, Miss Carolyn Gillespy, Miss Wilhemina Thomsen, Miss Marjorie Kittinger, Miss Katherine Kittinger, Miss Mildred Gibson, Miss Olive Schram, Miss Marguerite Auzias Turenne.

The committee in charge of the music: Miss Elma Collins, Miss Eugenia Peters, Miss Mollie Kittinger and Miss Mary Delaney.

The ushers were Mr. Thomas Stimson, Mr. Percy Perry, Mr. Eugene West, Mr. George Gund, Mr. Stuart Maxwell, Mr. Douglas Peachy, Mr. Tom Andrew, Mr. Harvey Carr, Mr. Conrad Westervelt.

Very beautiful were many of the gowns worn by the maids and women. There were several of the latest Paris importations of striking combinations of soft brocaded satins, chiffons and laces. The popularity of Le Minaret style was decidedly apparent, with a predominance of that fashion in the brilliant colors so much worn. The most noticeable being:

Mrs. John Harrington Edwards—Blue charmeuse with gold dress and copper sash.

Mrs. Wallace Green Collins—White, with gold and silver dress.

Mrs. Cecil Bacon—Yellow, with lace overdress and trimmed with fur.

Mrs. Joshua Green—Old rose messaline with heavy crystal drape.

Mrs. Winfield R. Smith—Peach charmeuse, draped with beaded tunic.

Mrs. Samuel Leroy Crawford—Old rose satin with lace tunic and fur.

Mrs. W. A. Peters—Black charmeuse with lace bodice.

Mrs. Robert Greer—Rose liberty satin with a lace bodice.

Mrs. Caspar W. Sharples—Black chiffon over old blue.

Mrs. E. E. Ainsworth—White charmeuse with bordered chiffon overdress.

Mrs. Dovey—Black velvet and jet.

Mrs. A. J. Fiske—Black chiffon over white foundation.

Mrs. Fred Hudson Baxter—White lace robe.

Mrs. H. F. Norton—Old rose satin with a gold drape.

Mrs. Burke—Blue and embroidered gold chiffon with jeweled girdle and chinchilla bands.

Mrs. F. H. Brownell—Blue brocade with beaded overdrape.

Mrs. William Pitt Trimble—Blue taffeta with lace overdrape and rhinestone trimming.

Mrs. S. P. Weston—Black satin with lace bodice.

Mrs. Warren L. Gazzam—Black jet over white.

Mrs. Fransioli—Orange chiffon over white charmeuse.

Mrs. Robert Wilson—Black velvet with chiffon and jet over silver.

Mrs. Henry Carstens—Lavender liberty satin, trimmed with brown fur.

Mrs. L. E. Eyman—White charmeuse and chiffon and crystal.

Mrs. Howard Thomas, jr.—Blue, draped with lace.
