We come to thee, O Blessed Joseph, in our sore distress, and having sought the help of thy Most Blessed Spouse, we now

We humbly beg that, mindful of the dutiful affection which bound thee to the Tomakethem heirs of endless bliss in heaven, Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and Ande'en on earth the child of God can trace of the fatherly love wherewith thou The glorious blessings of his Saviour's face didst cherish the Child Jesus, thou wilt lovingly watch over the heritage which Jesus Christ purchased with His Blood, and of thy strength and power help us in our argent need.

O Most Provident Guardian of the Divine Family, protect the chosen race of Jesus Christ; drive far from us, most loving Father, every pest of error and corrupting sin; from thy place in heaven. most powerful deliverer, graciously come to our aid in this conflict with the powers of darkness; and as of old thou didst deliver the Child Jesus from supreme peril of life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from the snares of her enemies and from all adversity; have each of us always in thy keeping, that, following thy example and borne up by thy strength, we may be able to live holily, die happily, and so enter into the everlasting bliss of Heaven. Amen.

An indulgence of 7 years and 7 quarantines for each recital of the above prayer. (Pope Leo XIII, Aug. 15, 1889.)

At Rome.

The Pope's Jubilee was celebrated at Rome last Sunday with intense enthusiasm. At 4 o'clock in the morning the people began to gather before the gates of St. Peter's, five hours before the time set for Mass. Thirty thousand pilgrims and about an equal number of the citizens got admission. The great church was crowded to the steps. The mighty congregation broke out into exclamations of joy as the Pope, pale, but smiling and seemingly in very good health entered at 9.40. The Pontiff celebrated himself: his voice was "clear and penetrating."

In the evening St. Peter's, all the churches and religious houses, and a vast number of private residences were illuminated. Over 40,000 persons were unable to gain admission to the jubilee Mass. During the week the Holy Father had been overwhelmed with the congratulations and solid tokens of appreciation from the different nations. The French Ambassador presented a letter from President Carnot and a valuable present. A despatch dated February 22 says the jubilee presents amount to $7,000,000 francs, [about $1,100,000]. Of this $30,-000 was from Mexico and $50,000 from South America.
