

79. For each of the points set forth above, the Party making the proposal will be responsible for following it up and carrying it out.

80. The existence of this Programme is not to preclude the carrying out of other joint activities in the areas of education and culture; any such other activities are to be agreed upon through diplomatic channels.