

Lassond Industries Inc.

Joint venture between the Thai Pineapple Co. Ltd, and Lassonde Industries Inc. for technical transfer to produce tropical juice marketed in Canada and in South Asia.

LVM TECH

LVM TECH has entered into a joint venture with Chula Unisearch (which belongs to Bangkok's Chulalongkorn University), for the establishment of a quality assurance and material testing laboratory in Thailand.

Medigloves Co. Ltd.

Joint venture between a private Canadian investor and Thailand's Mah Boon Krong Group to produce surgical gloves for export.

Metofab (Asia) Company Ltd.

Joint venture between Metofab Inc. of Montreal, Yong Hong Seng Company Ltd. of Bangkok and Ventures International of Bangkok; established to begin production of aluminum railings and related products.

Nikkei Thai Aluminum Co. Ltd.

Producer of aluminum extrusions. Owned 75 per cent by Nippon Light Metal Company (N.L.M.) of Japan; 10 per cent by Alcan of Montreal; and 15 per cent by Siam Commercial Bank. (NLM is owned by The Aluminum Company of Canada Ltd.)

Pherm Pong Fishery Co. Ltd.

Baht Industries Inc. of Vancouver owns 40 per cent of this shrimp hatchery and farm in Phuket. Baht Industries represents the interests of 20 private Canadian investors.

Plastiques Eaton

Joint venture with Kamaya Kogyo of Japan and the Saha Group in Thailand

Pronto Auto Repair

Licensing agreement with Tri Mitr Industry and Engineering Co.

Poonpipat Finance and Securities Co. Ltd.

The Bank of Nova Scotia Group has a 25 per cent equity investment with management participation in Poonpipat. In addition to regular finance company activities, Poonpipat maintains a seat on Thailand's stock exchange and offers full brokerage company services.

Samroyod Corporation Ltd.

Joint venture between Imperial Flavours Inc. of Toronto and Samroyod for the manufacturing and marketing of tropical fruit products and juice concentrates.