

ARTICLE 2

Legislation to Which the Convention Applies

1. This Convention shall apply to the following legislation:
 - (a) with respect to Canada:
 - (i) the Old Age Security Act and the regulations made thereunder, and
 - (ii) the Canada Pension Plan and the regulations made thereunder;
 - (b) with respect to the Kingdom of Morocco:
 - (i) the legislation relating to the Social Security Scheme as modified or completed, limited to long term benefits and to the death allowance payable to the survivors of an insured person or of a beneficiary of an old age pension, or a disability pension or benefit,
 - (ii) the legislation relating to work accident and professional illnesses (provisions relating to benefits),
 - (iii) the legislation, regulation or statutory provisions agreed upon by the public authority relating to special social security schemes in so far as they provide coverage of salaried workers or those considered as such, and related to current risks and benefits as provided for by the legislation of social security schemes.
2. Subject to paragraph 3, this Convention shall also apply to laws and regulations which amend, supplement, consolidate or supersede the legislation specified in paragraph 1.
3. This Convention shall apply to laws and regulations which extend the legislation of a Party to new categories of beneficiaries or to new benefits unless an objection on the part of that Party has been communicated to the other Party no later than three months following the entry into force of such laws and regulations.
