VISIT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
TO LONDON, JANUARY 29, 1987

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, announced today that he will hold talks with the British Foreign and Commonwealth Secretary, the Right Honourable Sir Geoffrey Howe, in London on January 29.

The two ministers meet frequently at multilateral gatherings. Mr. Clark last paid an official visit to London in 1984 and Sir Geoffrey visited Ottawa in 1985. In addition to bilateral matters, they will discuss a range of international issues.

As previously announced, Mr. Clark will leave the next day for an official visit to Bangladesh and India.
