to have returned to China, had it not been for the exertions of us, the master and seamen of the N. W. America; that the reason of this weakness on board the Columbia was their sending the greater part of their crew on board the sloop Washington, in order that she might be manned, and made more competent to continue on the coast of America.

Sworn at Canton, before the Honourable East India Company's chief Supra-cargo, this fifth day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine:

(Signed)

ROBERT FUNTER, Master of the N. W. America.

ROBERT DAVIDSON, Quarter-master.
