The first of these is the fact that the population of the country has increased rapidly since the year 1850. This is due to a number of
causes, the most important of which are
the discovery of gold and silver, the
opening of the
Suez Canal, and the improvement of the
railroads.

The second cause is the
fact that the country
has a large amount of
land which is still
unimproved. This
land is being
improved rapidly,
and the population
is increasing
consequently.

The third cause is the
fact that the country
land is being
improved rapidly,
and the population
is increasing
consequently.

The fourth cause is the
fact that the country
land is being
improved rapidly,
and the population
consequently.

The fifth cause is the
improved rapidly,

The sixth cause is the
improved rapidly,

The seventh cause is the
improved rapidly,
consequently.

The eighth cause is the
improved rapidly,
consequently.
