

103. The children of any widow who becomes either a probationary or enfranchised Indian shall be entitled to the same privileges as those of a male head of a family in like circumstances.

5 104 In allotting land to probationary Indians, the quantity to be located to the head of a family shall be in proportion to the number of such family, compared with the total quantity of land in the reserve, and the whole number of the band; but any band may determine what quantity shall
 10 be allotted to each member for enfranchisement purposes, provided each female of any age, and each male member under fourteen years of age, receive not less than one-half the quantity allotted to each male member of fourteen years of age and over.

Rules for allotting lands to probationary Indians.

Proviso as to power of band in this behalf.

15 105. Any Indian, not a member of the band, or any non-treaty Indian, who, with the consent of the band and the approval of the Superintendent-General, has been permitted to reside upon the reserve, or obtain a location thereon, may, on being assigned a suitable allotment of land by the band
 20 for enfranchisement, become enfranchised on the same terms and conditions as a member of the band; and such enfranchisement shall confer upon such Indian the same legal rights and privileges, and make such Indian subject to such disabilities and liabilities as affect Her Majesty's other subjects; but such enfranchisement shall not confer upon such
 25 Indian any right to participate in the annuities, interest moneys, rents and council of the band.

As to Indians not members of the band but permitted to reside on their reserve.

Proviso.

106. Whenever any band of Indians, at a council summoned for the purpose according to their rules, and held in
 30 the presence of the Superintendent-General, or an agent duly authorized by him to attend such council, decides to allow every member of the band who chooses, and who may be found qualified, to become enfranchised, and to receive his or her share of the principal moneys of the band, and sets
 35 apart for such member a suitable allotment of land for the purpose, any applicant of such band, after such a decision, may be dealt with as provided in the seven next preceding sections until his or her enfranchisement is attained; and whenever any member of the band, who for the three years
 40 immediately succeeding the date on which he or she was granted letters patent, or for any longer period that the Superintendent-General may deem necessary, by his or her exemplary good conduct and management of property, proves that he or she is qualified to receive his or her share of such
 45 moneys, the Governor may, on the report of the Superintendent-General to that effect, order that the said Indian be paid his or her share of the capital funds at the credit of the band, or his or her share of the principal of the annuities of the band, estimated as yielding five per cent. out of such
 50 moneys as may be provided for the purpose by Parliament; and if such Indian be a married man then he shall also be paid his wife and minor unmarried children's share of such funds and other principal moneys, and if such Indian be a widow, she shall also be paid her minor unmarried

Provision when band decides that all its members may become enfranchised.

Or when Indian becomes qualified by exemplary conduct.

If such Indian be a married man or widow.
