

Infantry past Batoche under a heavy fire from the rebels. At the second or third shot from the rebel force he was hit by a bullet in the left shoulder, and was in hospital at Prince Albert till near the end of June. His name is mentioned in Major Smith's despatch published in the "Canada Gazette" of 30th October, 1885. He received the medal and clasp, and his pay was continued to the 1st of March, 1886, in consideration of the wound.

NOTE 13.

John Macdonell of Lick's second son was Allan. He was captain-lieutenant in the first battalion of the Royal Yorkers. He was twice married, first to Miss Macdonald, aunt of Colonel James Macdonald, of the Glen; secondly to a sister of Miles Macdonell. Allan was father of, 1st, James Macdonell, of Beverley; 2nd, John Macdonell, who lost an arm at the taking of Ogdensburgh; 3rd, Mrs. Scott, of Prescott, wife of Dr. Thomas Scott, and mother of the Honorable R. W. Scott and Mrs. Archibald Fraser; 4th, Mrs. Simon Fraser, of St. Andrews, (whose husband discovered the Fraser River in British Columbia); 5th, Mrs. Grant, of L'Orignal.

Alexander was another son of John of Lick. He married a sister of the Honorable Alexander Grant, of L'Orignal, and left a large family, among whom were the late Archy Macdonell, Lick, of St. Andrews; Mrs. Chisholm, wife of Colonel Chisholm, of Alexandria; and John, who was the eldest, and who died of wounds received at the battle of Queenston Heights. The grandchildren of Alexander own and occupy the land near St. Andrews which he received as a U. E. Loyalist.

Ranald Macdonell was another son of John of Lick. He was a lieutenant in the 2nd battalion of the Royal Yorkers. He married a Miss Robertson, and was the father of Mrs. Donald Macdonell, Greenfield, Mrs. Ambrose Blacklock and Mrs. Walker.

Roderick Macdonell was another son of John of Lick. He was educated at Douay, in France, and was priest at St. Regis.
