

voyage, so as it shall not be lawful to molest or search in any manner, or to give her chase, or to force her to quit her intended course.

ART. 28. It is also agreed, that all goods, when once put on board the ships or vessels of either of the two contracting parties, shall be subject to no further visitation, but all visitation or search shall be made before-hand, and all prohibited goods shall be stopped on the spot before the same be put on board, unless there are manifest tokens or proofs of fraudulent practice ; nor shall either the persons or goods of the subjects of his most christian majesty, or the united states, be put under an arrest or molested by any other kind of embargo for that cause, and only the subject of that state to whom the said goods have been or shall be prohibited, and who shall presume to sell or alienate such sort of goods, shall be duly punished for the offence.

ART. 29. The two contracting parties grant mutually the liberty of having each in the ports of the other consuls, vice-consuls, agents and commissaries, whose functions shall be regulated by a particular agreement.
