BRITAIN MUST CONTROL THE NILE

Salisbury Makes It Clear That Marchand Will Have to Quit.

WAR MAY BE DECLARED AT ANY MOMENT.

Such is the Tone of Lieut. Churchill's Speech—Tenders Have Been Asked for Four New First-Class Battleships—Until Marchand Gets Out There Can Be No Discussion of French Claims in Africa.

The war cloud has not yet lifted, and the situation is still regarded as critical. All the reports go to show that John Bull has put his foot down in Africa, and that France must either withdraw from Fashoda or fight. The financial markets of London and Paris, while perhaps not panicky, show an unsettled tendency that is not reassuring.

One feature that may be regarded as tending to peace is the fact that General Chanoiné, the ghting Minister for War of France, has resigned, and an additional fact is that the Brisson Ministry has been defeated. The Premier has tendered his resignation, as well as that of his Cabinet, but the resignation has not yet been accepted.

Meanwhile the British Government goes on the even tenor of its way, and shows that "Ready, aye, Ready" is still the motto. In all parts of the world the British Navy is being got into working shape, and it is most probable that, should France decline to remove Marchand's force from Fashoda, there will be trouble right away. British warships at Halifax have been taking on supplies, and the probability is that they are under orders to proceed to the French West Indies as soon as they are ready.

Altogether there has not been any marked change in the position during the past 24 hours, and while there may be hope of a peaceful solution, the outlook is equally.

MARCHAND MUST MOVE

But French Journals Believe a Pacific Solution of the Dispute Will Be Found.

London, Oct. 25.—All interest to-day is centered in the Marquis of Salisbury's addition to the publication of the British blue book on that subject. The Conservative newspapers express themselves as being highly pleased with his rejoinder to the French yellow book on the same subject. They declare that it dispels the idea spread by the despatch of the French ambassador here, Baron de Concel, that the British Premier was willing to negotiate on the whole question. But the Liberal and Radical organs still consider that the Marquis of Salisbury's attitude admits of negotiations promising friendly arrangement.

ARMY AND NAVAL

The entire press, however, counts the idea of the possession of Fashoda within the sphere of the discussion. The St. James' Gazette this afternoon says: "We are prepared to negotiate the question of the western frontier of the Bah-el-Ghazal district. But we must counter the Nile, both banks and watersheds, from its source to the sea."

MARCHAND MUST QUIT

The Marquis has made it clear that Major Marchand must quit Fashoda without conditions, adding: "That is the only one there is no discussion of the French claims in Africa."

Continuing, the Globe points out the significant announcement in General Kitchener's report that he sent gunboats south from Sobat, towards Meshra-or-Rek, the principal trading centre of the Bah-el-Ghazal region, with instructions to establish necessary outposts, and that before he left Sobat he completed arrangements for the maintenance of those stations.

MAKING THE CONSEQUENCES

The publication of the blue book that the French Government has been given to understand that, wholly apart from the Nile question, its title to the territory adjoining on the left bank of the Nile is "rejected as utterly untenable, and France must accept the position or take the consequences."

The Westminster Gazette suggests a solution that the French be granted "way leave" and "enclave" for commercial purposes in the Bah-el-Ghazal district.

"Way leave" is the right of way over another's ground. "Enclave" is to shut in, to enclose a territory within the territory of another power.

The French papers to-day are more hopeful, and believe that a pacific solution of the dispute will be found.

The English newspapers are full of naval particulars, but the only fresh development is an order received at Portsmouth to prepare all the ships of the fleet and the reserve for immediate mobilization. Eight additional warships there, in consequence, commenced coaling this morning and working parties were immediately placed on board the other reserve vessels at Portsmouth.

ACTIVE WAR PREPARATIONS

Although not connected with the war preparations, much attention has been attended to a request received by the Clyde Shipbuilders, from the British Admiralty, for tenders for four new first-class battle-ships, a first-class cruiser and twelve torpedo boat destroyers. The distinguish- ing feature is the increased armament, which it is believed will make the battle-ships, when ready for service, the most ### powerful vessels of their class afloat. They will have a speed of 19 knots. The cruiser will be of 14,100 tons, and will be designed to steam 23 knots. All the vessels will mount exceptionally strong quick-firing guns.

ADVISED NOT TO YIELD.

This Resolute Advice to British Government Was Received With Ringing Cheers.

London, Oct. 25.—An interesting feature of the Fashoda situation was the stump of Lieut. Winston Churchill, the son of Lady Randolph Churchill. The Lieutenant, who has just returned from the Sudan, made an eloquent speech before a crowded audience, which included his mother. After referring to the successful foreign policy of the Government, he said, had "resulted in cordial relations with the great American republic, which speaks our language, and uses our laws," Lieut. Churchill proceeded to discuss the Fashoda question, and his resolute advice to the Government not to yield was received with ringing cheers.

In the course of his remarks the Lieutenant said: "A great military power, with which we have lived in friendship, has deliberately crossed our path, and has put an affront upon us, and it may be only a matter of a few days, or a few hours, when we shall be called upon to make a great effort to hold what belongs to us."

FRENCH YELLOW BOOK

Dealing With Part France Took in Spanish-American War Published Yesterday.

Paris, Oct. 25.—The French yellow book dealing with the part France took in the Spanish-American war was published this morning. It comprises seventeen of the documents, and consists of a dry record of the exchange of despatches with Madrid and Washington while arrangements were being made for the mediation of France.

M. Cambon, the French ambassador at Washington, it is shown, called on Aug. 4 that the United States had accepted Spain's proposal that the peace negotiations be held at Paris, saying that President McKinley considered the U. S. Government thereby gave the Spanish Government a mark of its good will and to France a token of its confidence.

Another despatch from M. Cambon, dated Aug. 13, announces the signing of the protocol, and says that President McKinley had warmly thanked him for France's good offices, expressing satisfaction at seeing that the negotiations would continue at Paris. To this M. Cambon replied that he was very pleased at the confidence President McKinley displayed in the French Government and its representative.

M. Delcasse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, cabled on Aug. 13 that he highly appreciated those thanks, which, he added, were striking proof that the "White House had never for one moment misunderstood the high motive which inspired our conduct."

Secretary Day, in a despatch dated Aug. 15, addressed to M. Cambon, announced that a suspension of hostilities had been ordered, and expressed satisfaction at the

A CANADIAN IN AFRICA.

Lieut. Keating, a Toronto Boy, Under Her Majesty's Orders in the Niger Country.

Recently received London, England, papers contain intelligence to the effect that Lieutenant Keating, son of Mr. E. H. Keating, general manager of the Toronto "Bell" Company, has recently been serving in the Niger country, Africa, under Colonel Layard. On July 24 he was at Lokofa, and within twelve hours' notice had to set out on a 200-mile march with 76 native soldiers under his command. His journey lay from Lokofa to Jebba, and owing to the many difficulties encountered occupied fifteen days. He reached Jebba on Aug. 7, and, after a few days' rest, again set out to make Boussa, the most advanced British post in the Niger territory. By the order he received from the Military Department, he was called upon to hasten to his destination, because the Niger Company's native troops at Fort Goldie, one of the stations on the line of march, had mutinied. His duty was to restore order at Fort Goldie, and then to move on to Boussa. News of hostilities in Sierra Leone have been received in London, which accounts for the departure of H.M.S. Rambler from Halifax to Africa.

If three dollar hats could be sold for one dollar, Dineens would be most likely to do so. The Dineens' direct relations with the city are through their agents, who are always ready to sell the finest hat qualities at very lowest prices. The special hat display this week abounds with the smaller hat styles and new hat styles and hat qualities are greater, and that the prices—the cash prices and profits—are smaller at Dineens' than anywhere else in the city.

BOWEN WAS FOUND GUILTY.

Conspiracy Case Tried at the Ottawa Assizes Yesterday.

He and Another Man Were to Way-lay the Postmaster—He Probably Will Receive Consideration—Two Men Found Guilty of Robbing a Toronto Man—Notes From the Capital.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The trial of Austin Bowen, for conspiracy, was up at 10 o'clock to-day. The Crown met Mr. Lachford's objection to the admission of the letter found on Moseley, by putting expert evidence to identify the handwriting. Mr. Charles E. Ferguson, Mr. W. J. Christie and Mr. John O'Meara, examined the writing in the letter with an envelope addressed by Bowen, which had been obtained by the detectives, and agreed that the writing was that of the same man.

His Lordship ruled the evidence sufficient identification to admit the letter, which was produced and read. The letter named another date upon which two men were to waylay the postmaster and promised Moseley $25 or $50 if the thing turned out all right. It also gave Moseley instructions to address Bowen by his name in full in future letters, as the initials A. B. formerly used looked suspicious.

J. W. Moseley was re-called and examined at length, after which counsel addressed the jury.

The jury found Bowen guilty. Moseley was then arraigned, and pleaded guilty. It was understood that he will receive the consideration usually shown to prisoners to try Queen's evidence.

Evans, Stone and Robert Moran were found guilty of the theft of a ring from J. B. Russell of Toronto. This was the second criminal case heard and the second verdict of guilty. In the case of Stone and Moran, however, the jury made a recommendation for mercy, as both were young men and apparently of previous good character. The evidence of a witness named Vesburg was what led to the conviction of these two men. He swore that he had stood about 20 feet away and seen the prisoners take the ring from Russell's finger.

Mr. Senkler's Position.

Mr. F. H. Senkler, barrister, Vancouver, speaking in regard to his brother's appointment to the position of Gold Commissioner, said: "The position was offered to me on Saturday, I, of course, felt gratified at receiving the offer, but decided at once that the sacrifice in giving up my professional work here and breaking up my home in Vancouver, would be too great. I recommended my brother Edmund as a man peculiarly fitted for the position by his great energy, his youth, his natural ability and his knack of conciliating jarring forces. I was much pleased to note that my recommendation had been acted upon."

Senkler is a son of Judge Senkler of St. Catharines.

Edith Cole Disappears.

Miss Edith Cole, daughter of A. C. Cole, who runs a factory and general store in Sparks-street, disappeared last Saturday night. She was out with her mother shopping, and they parted in Metcalfe-street to meet in Sparks-street. Miss Cole did not return until Sunday night, when she entered her father's home in a dazed and delirious condition. Detectives have been looking into the matter. Miss Cole is 15 years of age. She talks about being abducted by a woman, but no full story in her present condition can be obtained.

DRYDEN'S FRIENDS ARE WORKING WITH A WILL, AND THE OPPOSITION ARE ALSO FIGHTING HARD.

Whitby, Ont., Oct. 25.—The nomination for the South Ontario bye-election, through the voiding of the election of Chas. Calder, M.L.A., for corrupt practices, was held in the music hall here this afternoon. Sheriff Paxton was returning officer, Col. O'Donoghue, police clerk, and by arrangement between the voting associations of the two parties, the Sheriff was chosen chairman of the public meeting which followed, and which was addressed by the two candidates, and by three other prominent gentlemen on agriculture, who was defeated by Mr. Calder last March, was nominated by the Liberals, Mr. R.R. Mobery of Kinsale, in the Township of Pickering, making the motion, and Mr. John Bartlett of East Whitby seconded it.

Mr. Charles Calder was nominated by Mr. Arthur Johnston of Pickering Township, seconded by Mr. J.H. Long of this town, Mr. Calder's financial agent is Mr. F.M. Yarnold, Post Perry, and Hon. Mr. Dryden, Mr. David Gurney, Whitby.

The hall filled up, including in the number many ladies who occupied the gallery.

When the speaking began and the two parties were pretty evenly divided. Feeling is already running high over the election, and many interruptions of the speakers made the proceedings rather lively. Friends of Hon. Mr. Dryden are working with a will to return the Minister of Agriculture, and the Opposition are fighting hard. The candidates spoke and were followed by Messrs. J. O'Reilly of Ipscott; A. Patullo, M.L.A., Woodstock; and G.P. Graham, M.L.A., Brockville, for the Minister of Agriculture, and by Messrs. W.H. Bennett, M.L.A. for East Simcoe; W.F. ## FRENCH MINISTRY HAS RESIGNED

And the Gay Capital is a Seething Cauldron of Disaffection.

MINISTER OF WAR STEPPED OUT FIRST.

The Meeting of the Chamber of Deputies Yesterday Was Marked by Great Excitement and Even a Personal Encounter—Premier Brisson Maintained That the Civil Power Should Precede the Military, But He Was Defeated.

Paris, Oct. 25.—There was considerable disorder about the approaches of the Palais Bourbon when MM. Deroulede, Millevoys and other deputies arrived, accompanied by a crowd of supporters. Members of the League of Patriots, who were crossing the Place de la Concorde, shouted "Vive l'Armée!" and the Republican Guards were obliged to clear a passage. A conflict with the police soon occurred. A band of anti-Semites attacked and injured a commissary of police with loaded sticks. The ringleader, M. Gourin, president of the Anti-Semitic League, was arrested.

M. Drumont, the anti-Semite leader, then arrived, and there were further disturbances, cries of "Down with the Jews!" and cheering for France. A detachment of cuirassiers charged and dispersed the mob. Several arrests were made. The session of the Chamber of Deputies had no sooner opened than M. Deroulede made a violent attack upon the Minister of War, General Chanoiné, whereupon the latter arose and explained the conditions under which he accepted the portfolio. In so doing he declared that he was of the same opinion as his predecessors, evidently referring to the question of reopening the Dreyfus case, a remark which was greeted with cheers and protests, the uproar lasting five minutes.

A Personal Encounter.

During M. Deroulede's speech two of the deputies, MM. Basly and Paulnamy, engaged in a personal encounter, which caused intense excitement among the members of the House and the crowds of spectators in the galleries.

Finally the deputies arose in a body, and protested against the conduct of the fight.

When General Chanoiné was able to resume speaking, he asserted that he was the guardian of the honor of the army, and concluded with saying angrily: "I place in your hands the trust I received, and I tender my resignation in this tribune."

The Mob Rampant.

Paris, Oct. 26.—(11 a.m.)—About midnight a mob of members of the Patriotic League smashed the windows and glass staircases of a shop, whose owner is said to be a Jew, at the corner of the Rue Auber and the Rue Scribe.

The Vigilance Committee of the Socialist party issued to-night a manifesto condemning the action of General Chanoiné and denouncing the "make-believe Republicans who have strangled debate in the Chamber and created a crisis."

The committee has decided to organize all the Socialists and revolutionary Repub-
