MANY PICNICS HELD AT SPRINGBANK AND LAKESIDE RESORT

Popular Amusement Places Literally Swarmed With Visitors.

CONSTANT CAR SERVICE

Season's Record Established For Number of Outings

Yesterday was the most popular day of the whole season for church and Sunday school picnics. During both morning and afternoon thousands found their way to Port Stanley and Springbank Park, until these popular resorts literally swarmed with visitors. Big trains were required almost every hour to convey the throngs to Port Stanley, Talbot Street Baptist Sunday School and the Bethany Union taking time by the forelock in getting away at 9:20 o'clock. Cronyn Memorial Parish, Weilington Street Methodist Sunday School and St. David's followed at 10:20 a.m., while the White Shriners went down on the 1:20 train. Hundreds of other people not associated with any of the people not associated with a peopl other people not associated with any of these picnics took advantage of the half holiday to seek refreshing breezes and enjoy a dip in the lake.

at intervals during the day, the weather kept on its good behavior until all the inners had received their rewards.

BEES AND POTATO BUGS MAY FACE MAGISTRATE

GUELPH, July 9 .- Will the Guelph police court one of these days be turned into a kind of "Alice in Wonderland"? The question is not a facetious one, but is the natural sequence to the visit paid to the police court today by George Searle of Derry street, who consulted Chief Rae this morning on the law in regard to trespassers. It appears that a number of trespassers from his neighbor gardens have been invading Mr. Searle's domain and doing great damage to
