Coupled with this will be found the reports of our Bible Woman in Montreal, Mrs. Scott, and of Miss Piché in Ottawa Valley and elsewhere.

While this has been done in missionary work proper, our indefatigable Field Secretary, Rev. E. Bosworth, has visited Churches, Sunday Schools, Associations and Conventions, to revive and extend the interest in this most philanthropic, and patriotic, and christian work. As usual, we are again very much indebted to the different Ladies' Associations who have so generously contributed to our Treasury, especially the Brooklyn, the Philadelphia, the Toronto, the Ottawa and Montreal Associations. We repeat this year our thanks to the Associational Secretaries, for their kind help in circulating literature among the churches, and for their efforts in obtaining offerings for the Mission. We also recognize our grateful indebtedness to the pastors of churches and superintendents of Sunday Schools all over the large field for kind and devoted co-operation in our work. Among the many kind auxiliaries of our work, we are happy to recall a debt of gratitude we owe to the generous little English Baptist Church in Quebec, which from the beginning of the work of evangelization there, has been a devoted helper in many ways. Thanks to them for this long standing fraternal interest.
