H. E. COFFIN, VICE-PRESIDENT AND CHIEF DESIGNER HUDSON MOTORCAR COMPANY.

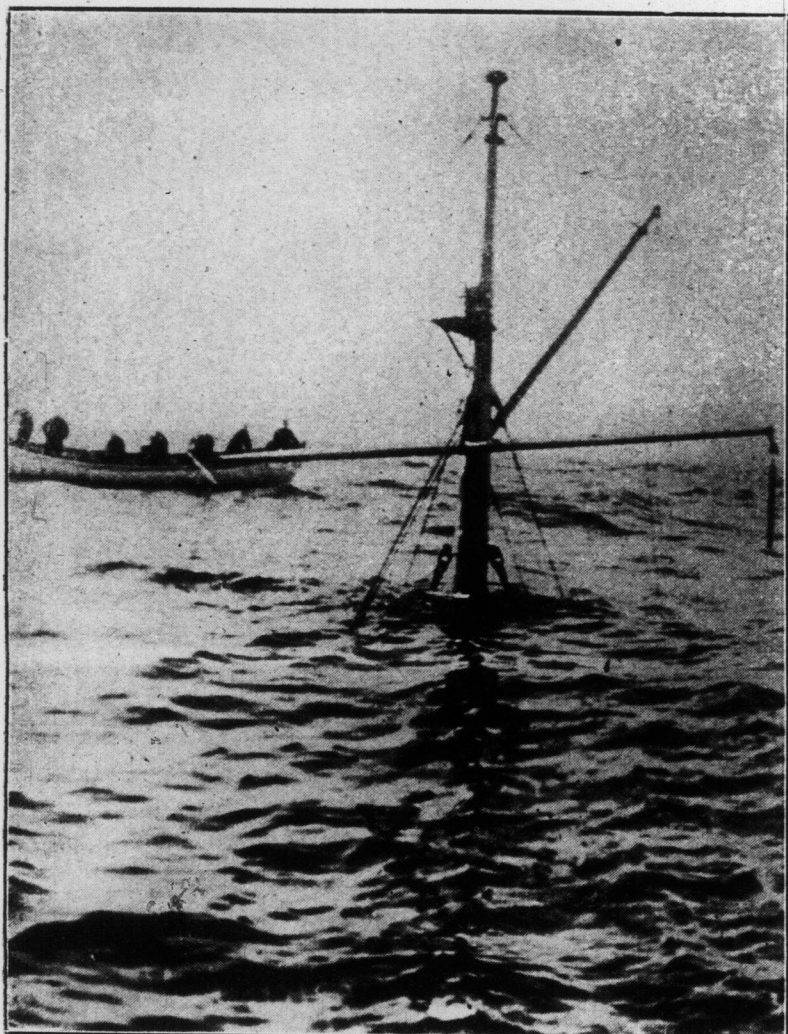

C. C. WINNINGHAM, DIRECTOR OF SALES AND ADVERTISING HUDSON MOTORCAR COMPANY.

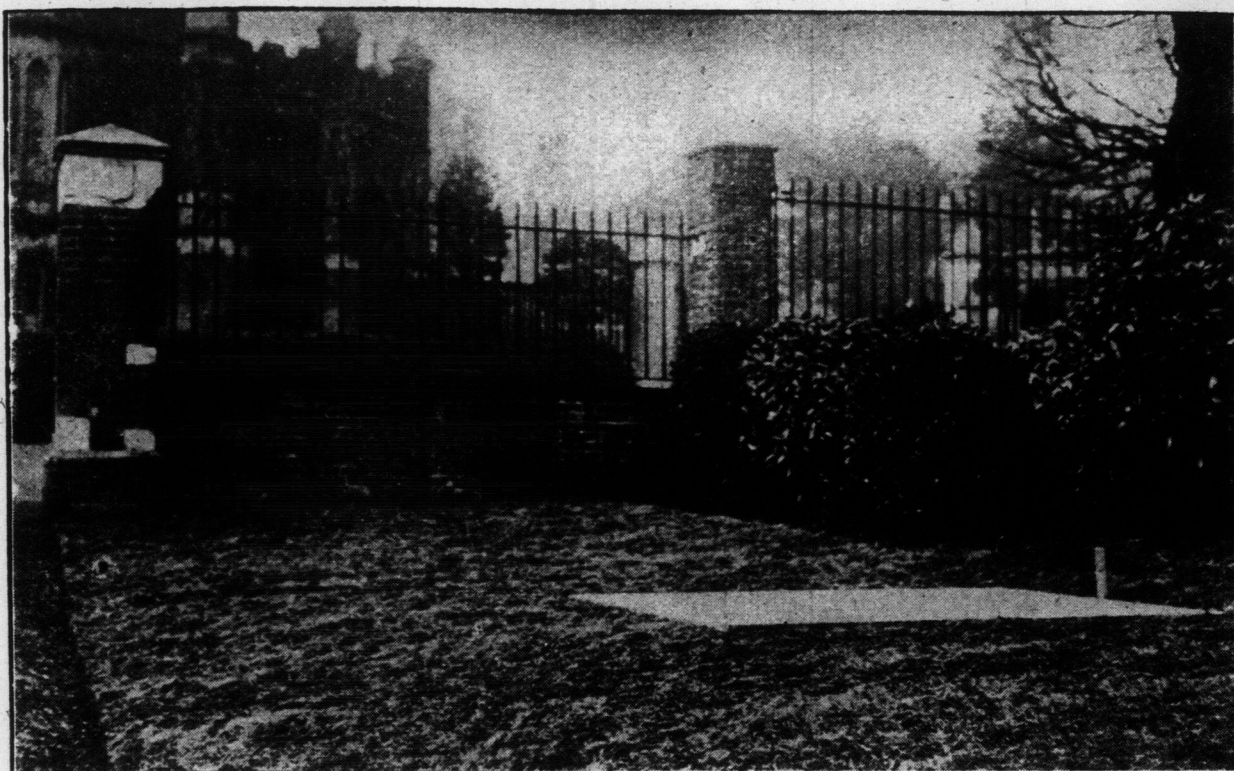

G. G. BEHN, CHIEF ENGINEER HUDSON MOTORCAR COMPANY.

E. C. MORSE, GENERAL SALES MANAGER HUDSON MOTORCAR COMPANY.

The graveyard and gravestone of the ill-fated "Monroe," which was sunk in collision. Hovering nearby is a U.S. Government lifeboat, hoping to pick up some of the forty bodies.

In accordance with the wish of Lord Stratheona to be buried at Highgate (where he bought a section of the cemetery away from the other graves), his resting-place is not to be in Westminster Abbey, as was first proposed. Photo shows the vault which is just inside the church entrance to the cemetery.

"SOMEWHERE" THE SUN IS SHINING--AND THERE'S NO SNOW OR ICE ABOUT. A TORONTO MAN SENDS THIS SNAPSHOT FROM A FLORIDA RESORT. AREN'T YOU ENVIOUS?

YOUR OLD FAVORITES

RAISE the lid and a flood of memories bring back the days before fancy prices were essential to your delight in a confectionery.

Satin-Coated Mints--French Nougat--these and all the other old favorites are included in Patterson's newest assortment--a delightful change from the omnipresent Chocolate.

Here are a few of the old friends you will meet again:

Dairy Caramels Banquet Jellies
Butter Caramels Satin Mints

Pecan Dainties
French Nougat Fingers
Butter Scotch
French Fruit Nougat
Fork-Dipped Bon-Bons
Apple Marshmallow
Buttercups

The box is a delightful creation of old-fashioned Chintz tied with satin baby ribbon, and finished with a flower knot.

It contains 1 1/2 lbs. of the purest of candies, and is obtainable from all dealers in high-class confectioneries.

This picture came from Paris with the caption, "La Parisienne ne sera plus frileuse." London, as well as Paris, to say nothing of Toronto, has discovered a new fact, that women can walk about with bare neck and tight wrapping and evidently be supremely comfortable, during weather in which man finds it necessary to muffle himself up to the ears.

Flying upside down, something not even the birds can do, for the first time in America. Charles F. Niles, the 24-year-old veteran sky sailor, in his daring stunt at Hempstead Plains, Long Island.
