"ELIJAH" IS NOT YET LOCATED

Sandford Is Not on Board the Coronet --- A Meeting Held This Morning --- Barnacles on the Yacht As Well As in It --- Back to Maine.

Where is Elijah? is a question that is agitating the people of Maine at present. One would think from the fact that his name is on the yacht Coronet...

Mr. Sandford is not the man to run away from trouble, and if he was wanted in Maine he would certainly be there. He has nothing to be afraid of.

The coronet is in a leaky condition, and the only object in coming here was to have the vessel put on a marine railway and have her bottom scraped.

Speaking about the habits of the sea while here, a man who lived near them told the Times this morning that they had very little furniture in their houses, and no carpets on the floor as far as he knew.

MORE TROUBLE COMING

ST. CATHERINES, May 4.—Prof. C. A. Johnson, a colored astronomer, and editor here last night. He predicted violent earthquakes which would result in the loss of millions of lives towards the end of the present year.

Third in succession after Canute was Edward, the son of Ethelred. As he had spent twenty-seven years at the Norman Court it is not surprising that Edward's accession marked a change in the manners and customs of the times. The French language was adopted at Court, and the lawyers and clergy used the same tongue.

TOKYO, May 4.—The press of this city continues its sharp criticism of French neutrality in Indo-China. It is even declared that several transports are leaving Kronstadt for the Pacific to man the purchased vessels.

NAN PATTERSON TO BE RELEASED

So Says Her Counsel Today --- Collapsed While Awaiting the Verdict, but Slept Well Afterward --- Thousands Awaited the Jury's Decision --- May Be Released From Custody Today.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Dramatic in the extreme were the closing scenes early this morning of the Nan Patterson case in Recorder Geff's court.

When Recorder Geff was summoned to the court soon after one o'clock the room was filled with spectators, two of whom were women. Only those possessing permits were allowed to enter, but in the streets outside were thousands awaiting the verdict.

Lawyer Levy, counsel for Miss Patterson, said today: "I will apply for Nan Patterson to be admitted to a normal trial again. Of this I am certain. I am disappointed that she was not acquitted."

DEFENDS HER SISTER

Who, With Her Husband, Was Found Dead in a Field Near Blackpool, England—Were Married Very Young.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 4.—Mrs. E. Florence Ward, of Port Kennedy, a sister of Mrs. Robert Hamilton Shaw, who with her husband, was found dead in a field near Blackpool, England, yesterday, made a statement in defence of her sister's memory today.

"My sister was highly as loved by her friends here, and a better girl never lived," declared Mrs. Ward. "It is an outrage to even suggest anything improper in her life previous to her marriage. We lived together for years, and it was impossible for her to have been implicated in an intrigue with a man without my knowledge. I declare positively that she was a pure, good girl, incapable of doing wrong. We have all been looking forward to a visit from my sister and her husband, and when they arrived, I was surprised to find that they were married. I had never seen her husband, and I had never seen her sister's husband. I had never seen her sister's husband, and I had never seen her sister's husband."
