

III.—Piano and Organ Playing, and also occasional public performances by those qualified to partake in the various Musical a number of which are given at the College in the course of every year.

The advantages to young players in practicing and performing with others in these departments, &c., are unnumbered, and the same may be said in regard to their appearing occasionally in public.

The College possesses numerous facilities for exhibiting these advantages, and they will be used in the best manner possible.

IV.—Classical Piano and Organ Recitals, given by the Faculty and students, the Institution at frequent intervals during the year, and also the Annual Grand Concert in aid of the United States Sanitary Commission.

A passive Gold Medal is given at the close of the year to the student who has excelled in all his studies; besides other valuable prizes are awarded to the students according to merit. The Medal is open for competition to students only. Students may not compete for prizes who do not enter the Conservatory before the close of the first quarter.

DIPLOMAS will be given to all completing the curriculum of studies required by the Conservatory standard of graduation.

GRADUATES stating qualifications of the possessor are given, when required, to pupils leaving the Institution.

All the Pianos used by the Conservatory are supplied by A. & S. Nordheimer.
