

Medium Priced Shoes

For Men and Women

$3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 Are Popular Prices for Footwear.

It has not always been possible to provide our customers with really stylish and, at the same time, serviceable goods at the price. This season we made up our minds that our range of popular priced shoes should be up-to-the-minute in shape, design and pattern. That we have succeeded is evidenced by the attractive displays in our show windows. Time and again customers have expressed surprise at the elegance of the make up in our popular-priced shoes. But most important of all, wear has not been sacrificed to style.

WONDER CHILDREN

(New York World)
A twelve-year-old girl who speaks eight languages, knows a lot of Cicero and Sallust in the original, composes French verse and Sapphic odes and teaches classes in Esperanto is a prodigy whose mental attainments will excite the customary interest and awe. And being also a perfectly normal tomboy sort of a girl, who swims, rows, cooks, boxes, plays baseball, drives an auto and rides a horse, besides playing the piano and the violin, she deserves to rank as all the greater an example of juvenile precocity. More and more the wonder grows that one small head can carry all little Miss Winifred Saville Storer knows. But what then? Is it supposable that other little girls can be made to become equally learned and accomplished in languages, French verse and Sapphic odes and teach classes in Esperanto? Or does it just happen that a prodigy of the kind is born into the world from time to time regardless of race just to show what Nature can do when she tries?

Exactly a century ago a little English boy, John Stuart Mill, then nine years old, had read Xenophon's "Anabasis" all of Herodotus and other Greek authors, and had become interested in Plato and Demosthenes, while at the same time he had learned the Greek alphabet at three, was conversant with Euclid and algebra at eight and at fifteen knew as much as a college don, while remaining a "healthy and high-spirited lad". This, of course, was the achievement of a boy, and in an age when girls in the cradle were not as yet imbued with feminist ideals. But is there anything to learn from the precocity of the Storer child that was not taught by the equal precocity of little John Stuart Mill a century ago? The world has to take its prodigies as they come, with a degree of wonder but without feeling that there is any special recipe for them, either in "genial influence" or "natural education."

THE NEW IMPERIAL

FEATURE PLEASES ALL

Extra Series of News Photographs, Strong Vitaphone Story and Dainty Vaudeville

The Imperial departed somewhat from its usual programme yesterday in presenting its patrons with forty-five minutes of topical news-photos as embraced in the current issues of the Universal Animated Weekly and the Hearst-Selig Weekly. The demand for moving picture news is a growing one and the Imperial is not slow to cater directly to this demand. The Weeklies include such splendid subject-matter as the bombardment of Sebastopol by the Turks; the Russians evacuating L'ock in East Prussia; German motor-boats at Ostend; British officers home on furlough; Austrian and German prisoners at Warsaw; the Panama Exposition; expert swimming; sensational bridge-wrecking and other subjects numbering more than twenty-five. It was a delightful treat and no matter how much the people like pictorial fiction, they must certainly also appreciate these weekly feasts of living news.

Last week the Imperial presented a splendid Vitaphone drama in "My Official Wife" and this week they are showing another feature by the same company entitled "Radium Thieves." Radium is the most precious of all minerals and when the learned savant goes to Paris and Berlin to buy a half million dollars worth, he is bound by a clique of crooks, who are terrified by the curative mineral and who meet with the terrors of the ammonia gun in the hands of an intrepid nurse, portrayed by Leah Baird.

The Imperial's vaudeville this week is a pretty and simple little offering partly by Hatheway & Mack, a couple of clever Kentuckians. They sing, talk and dance with grace and dexterity and altogether present a pleasing novelty.

On Wednesday the usual mid-weekly play will be the Broadway comedy "Mrs. Black Is Back," a wholesome laugh of four reel length in which the redoubtable May Irwin plays the stellar role. This comedy will be supplemented with a one-reel Charles Chaplin farce entitled "In The Park." Friday and Saturday the "Master Key" feature will be concluded with a series of rapid surprises.

REVUE AGAIN PLEASES IN A NEW PROGRAMME

Miss Wallace an Addition to the Company—Interesting Sketch and Specialties
Mack's Musical Revue opened the second week of their engagement in the Opera House with a programme which seemed to appeal to the large audience that was present.

The performance was bright and interesting, for the most part, giving the audience plenty of opportunity to display their ability as entertainers.
The chief feature of the first part was a farcical sketch "A Love Tangle" in which Elmore Ott, Rose Reading, Lillie Akers, Franklin Smith and Howard Smith were seen and in the second part "The Lawn Fete" gave an excuse for introducing some interesting specialties.
Among the soloists, Miss Evans, in operatic selections, Miss Ott, in several numbers; Miss Sands in "The Lilac Domino" and Miss Wallace, a new and welcome addition to the company, scored heavily with "A Greek Fantasy" sung by Miss Ott, with dancing by Miss Miller, Miss Ott, and Miss Sands and the chorus and this proved the most successful number.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.
You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.
A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

GOING MAD FROM THE TERRIFIC PAIN

Prominent Merchant Thinks His Life Was Saved By "Fruit-a-tives."

Drysdale, Ont., June 18th, 1918.
"I am a general storekeeper at the above address, and on account of the great good I have experienced from using "Fruit-a-tives," I recommended them to my customers. They were a great boon to me. I can tell you, for about two years ago, I was laid up in bed with vomiting and a terrific pain at the base of my skull. The pain nearly drove me mad. Doctors feared it would turn to inflammation of the brain, but I took "Fruit-a-tives" steadily until I was cured. I have gained a great amount of health. "Fruit-a-tives," and I verily believe they saved me from a disastrous illness."

tions by the male members was a song by Howard Smith in soldier's uniform, even if the details of the uniform were not quite exact.

Of course Nat. Farnum was in evidence, but not much too much so. He would have been more acceptable without his somewhat sacrilegious attempts at humor in his first appearance.

"RODS OF WRATH" IS BIG GEM FEATURE

Hero Shanghaiing on His Father's Vessel—Timely Scenes in Pathé News Weekly—Good Cartoon
A special three-part feature of stirring dramatic power "Rods of Wrath" was presented at the Gem Theatre yesterday giving pleasure to all who saw it. It was the story of a cruel father who was subject to many fits of anger in the picture showing a man in his self and family. His son decides to leave his father's roof, but is shanghaied by a villainous crew. What is the result? The answer should be seen to be appreciated. The picture will be given for the last time today.

In the Pathé News Weekly were many other interesting features, including some scenes from the zone of fighting overseas. Other views of popular interest were also given. The Gem orchestra had a good programme of three and four part songs in different parts were also given. For Wednesday and Thursday the bill is a special four part feature in colors, "More than Queen."

CHAPLIN AT UNIQUE

His Work Only Part of Excellent Week-Opening Programme

Complying with many requests for a repetition of the Keystone comedies presenting the most famous comedians in the picture world, the Unique Theatre has made arrangements with the Mutual Exchange to repeat the different subjects, and the second of the number, "His New Profession," is an additional feature to the opening programme of the week. It is a clean cut, fast playing farce allowing plenty of scope for Mr. Chaplin to demonstrate his ability to create laughter and the audience of yesterday thoroughly enjoyed his efforts. One of the leading theatrical papers contains a lengthy article this week to the effect that Mr. Chaplin has to his feet insured $150,000. This is said to be a fact that can well be believed when one sees Mr. Chaplin in his "His New Profession," for his great clumsy looking feet that move with such deftness and quickness tell nothing but fun and merriment. The comedy element of the programme, sensation and drama are interesting factors. The Broncho Co. are presenting a fine two-part story of the days of old, "The Game Keeper's Daughter," which is a remarkably clever story enacted with the skill of the artist and having an abundance of thrills that make a universal appeal. In "The Echo" the American players are seen to advantage, it being a particularly dainty offering of rural and society life.

DAINTY ACT AT LYRIC

Earle and Sunshine in Delightful Offering

Possibly one of the most delightfully dainty acts that the Lyric Theatre has presented in some time is that of Earle and Sunshine, two pretty girls in a fine act of distinct features now appearing there. Both ladies are endowed with talent that they use to the best possible advantage. The character drawings of the flirtatious Broadway boy, the old lady and the gossip are cleverly drawn. There are impersonations allow a great many opportunities for acting, while some dancing numbers are interspersed with good effect. The dance of the red umbrella is a unique as well as entertaining novelty and the solo number, "When I Dream of Old Erin," is very enjoyable. Several quick changes of costume are made adding greatly to the offering. As usual the Mutual Weekly, reviewing late happenings of interest, occupies the feature position in the picture programme and has a close second in the American story of stage life, "Iola." The Kimura's Japanese novelty with Belle Curmen the banjoist are billed for the latter part of the week.
Two women, mutually confiding their troubles—"You can't think how this high cost of living affects us," confessed the one. "Why, my bills for clothes alone are more than twice as large this year as they were last year." "Mercy!" gasped the other. "I don't see how your husband can afford it." "That's the answer he can't," retorted the first. "But he couldn't afford it last year, so what's the difference?"

RECENT DEATHS

Thomas Alexander Glennie.

The death of Thomas Alexander Glennie, who for more than twenty years had been a valued and popular employee of M. R. A. Ltd., occurred last night at his home, 46 Summer street, after an illness of about two months. He leaves to mourn his wife, two sons and three daughters. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. McEachern, of Fairville, and Mrs. E. Edgley, of Clairmont (N. H.). The funeral is to take place on Thursday.

died yesterday at his home in Winn, Maine, leaving two daughters and one son, F. C. Gates, manager of the Dufferin Hotel, here.

The death of Mrs. Sarah, wife of Samuel Naves, of Sheriff street, occurred yesterday. She is survived by her husband, three sons, James, William and Frederick, and one daughter, Mrs. William Bonnell, all of this city.

The death of Mrs. Ellen Harris occurred yesterday at the home of her brother, C. Keane, Winter street. Two sons, Walter and Thomas of this city, survive, two brothers, Cornelius and Patrick Keane, and one sister, Mrs. James H. Doody, all of St. John.

Doris, daughter of Mrs. James R. Ayer of Middle Sackville, is dead, aged nineteen years. She is survived by her mother, one sister, one brother and two half-sisters.

J. Frank McKendle of Sackville is dead, aged fifty-nine years, leaving his wife and two sons and one daughter. One brother and his mother also survive.

Mrs. James A. Barter of Avondale, Cardigan county, is dead. Had she lived until April 30 she would have celebrated the 50th anniversary of her wedding. Two of her daughters, Mrs. D. W. Kyle and Miss Teresa live in Moncton.

Mrs. Samuel Davis of Cork Settlement, is dead, aged seventy years, leaving her husband, one daughter, and two sons, three sisters and two brothers.

John L. Love, of Aberdeen, Wash., was recently killed by accident in the lumber woods. He was forty years old and leaves three brothers and two sisters. He formerly lived at Gibson, N. B.

Twelve-year-old Jimmie Come of Newburg, Ark., recently took the professional teachers' examination and was awarded a first-grade certificate. The boy is considered a prodigy and has always stood at the head of his class at school. He took the examination out of curiosity being, of course, too young to teach.

"Why has your daughter dropped her hospital work so soon?" "She found she'd have to nurse poor patients for two years before they entrusted her with any medicines. So she is going on the stage in musical comedy."

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods, rubbing on greasy "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.
Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its re-generative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. All leading druggists of St. John and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.
Caution—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.
