THINK of "Male and Female" Of "Why Change Your Wife?" Or any of those great Paramounts. Then try to imagine a story greater than any of these—stronger, more unusual, more thrilling. Imagine scores of settings, every one of them more elaborate, more daring, more luxurious than anything you have ever seen on the screen. Now imagine twelve of the best-known players in America, working under the magic direction of De Mille.

If you can imagine one superlative picture with all this—and more—you will have a slight idea of "The Affairs of Anatol."

People have been talking about it a year in advance. They'll be talking for ten years after.

BUFF RETAINS BANTAMWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

New York, Nov. 10.—Johnny Buff, world's bantamweight boxing champion, retained his title tonight by obtaining a judges' decision over Jack Sharkey, of New York, at the end of their fifteen-round bout in Madison Square Garden.

Beaten in a number of the earlier rounds, Buff started a winning offensive in the twelfth round and by the power of his hitting turned the tide against the Italian-American. Buff opened the fight with a rush but Sharkey's well-placed blows slowed him up for awhile. He was staggered by Sharkey's blows on numerous occasions but recuperated quickly.

Sharkey had the better of five rounds, six went to Buff and four were even. Buff weighed 114 pounds and Sharkey 116½.

Bert Collins, of San Francisco, received the judges' decision over George Shale, also of San Francisco, at the end of their eight-round bout.

THEN AS NOW.

(Toronto Globe.)

Mr. Meighen discounts Canadian political history and Canadian common sense. He continues to go about the country pleading for public support solely on the allegation that a change of government will mean blue ruin. His talk is pitifully reminiscent of that which twined the land before the general election of 1896. Then—as now—clinging to office by spreading weird stories

"HOLD YOUR HORSES!"

Adapted From the Famous SATURDAY EVENING POST STORY "CANAVAN" by RUPERT HUGHES

"BEGORRA, HORSESHOES BRING GOOD LUCK!" said Canavan the street-cleaner, when the snobbish horses of the snobbish Miss Newnes ran him down and stamped on his chest. And sure enough, five years later he married the haughty lady and carried her off to Nico on his yacht. It's a screamingly funny comedy of contrasts, with Tom Moore as the amazing Irishman.
