Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 21.—Manager-tin of the U. N. B. team has commenced negotiations for the play-off game. N. "Witness For The Defense"

"GUILTY?"

Would it be that when the jury came in?
Out there in the Indian jungle, her beast of a husband, murdered. The evidence all against her. Her love, her hopes, shattered and buried in England. The verdict would matter little after all.
Then came the witness for the defense! Surprise—suspense—scene after scene of appeal to the heart that is simply overwhelming! And an end—well, this is one picture you won't dare to miss.

Intermediate League

Akron, Ohio, Feb. 21.—Montreal sportsmen have offered $60,000 for the Akron franchise of the International League. Whether or not the offer will be accepted was said to depend upon whether the Akron chamber of commerce and other business organizations would respond to a request of the local club owners for an advance of $25,000 with which to start the season.
A meeting will be held today. It was said that two Newark organizations have also made bids for the franchise.

THE PINACLE OF DRAMATIC ACHIEVEMENT!

FATE IS OFTEN THE CRUELEST OF JESTERS. Jacqueline Fiorio's piteous life story bears vivid evidence of this. Turned from her home and family by her remorseless husband, a deputy attorney of Paris, she is unable to escape the dread shadow of a fate that crosses her baffled footsteps with ever increasing menace. Fate, in the guise of her husband's unjust suspicions, denies her the right to see her son; fate places in her hands the weapon which destroys a blackmailer who would ruin the career of her husband, now a judge; and fate brings her before the bar of justice where her husband presides and places her fight for life in the hands of her son—counsel for the defence. And having played trumps to the last, fate plays its joker, the highest card of all—death. Pauline Frederick in the role of Jacqueline Fiorio brings an emotional set to the screen more intensified than any ever displayed by this popular star. You may have seen the stage version of this famous play—most everyone has, now see Goldwyn's masterful, heart touching picturization.

MACDONALD'S CUT BRIER

MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.

MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.
