

Canada In The War

Newsy Notes of Activities in Many Parts of Dominion

Dr. R. H. Parent, of Ottawa, offers to lend his professional services free of charge to members of the families of Ottawa members of the overseas contingent, who may require the attention of a physician.

The Women's Art Association of Canada will go on with its great bazaar in Toronto, planned last spring, with the understanding that the first $2,000 of funds raised will be given to the relief fund of the city of Toronto, and the entire amount raised will be given to the same cause if found necessary.

The Canadian government has secured several aeroplanes of novel design which were owned in Canada, and will also have the services of some skillful aeromaniacs of whom little has been heard.

The Stratford, Ont., city council has pledged itself to care for the dependents of the twenty-five local British reservists who left for the front.

H. Brown, assistant financial editor of the Montreal Herald, son of J. H. Brown of the Post Office department, Ottawa, has been accepted by the Grenadier Guards for their volunteer contingent for the war and Harold P. Feeney, city hall reporter of the Herald, who is a reservist, left this week on his way to England.

No. 5 Company Canadian Engineers, composed of science students of Queen's University, Kingston, has gone to Valcartier. There are 140 men in the company, which is in command of Major Alexander MacPhail, a school of mining professor, and member of the Prince Edward Island legislature. Major MacPhail is a brother of Dr. Andrew MacPhail, of McGill, Montreal.

All motor cars owned by the members of the Canadian Automobile Federation have been placed at the disposal of the militia department to be used by Equivalents in whatever way they may desire. There are about 7,500 cars available, which could be called on at a moment's notice and might be used for carrying troops or for the conveyance of stores.

The present embargo on foodstuffs is having a serious effect on the Canadian tea trade. Official representations are being made to the British government.

THE WAR

INTERCESSORY SERVICES IN ENGLAND.
London, Aug. 21.—Intercessory services were held in practically every church in England today on behalf of the nations engaged in the war, with a special prayer for the success of the British arms. King George and Queen Mary with Princess Mary were present at the service in Westminster Abbey. The Prince of Wales National Relief Fund today reached a total of $7,500,000.

SAW MANY WOUNDED GERMAN.
London, Aug. 21.—(11:46 p. m.)—Passengers who arrive in England today from the continent say that refugees from Brussels are camping on the beach at Ostend. Many of them had the greatest difficulty in leaving the capital, as the trains were crowded with wounded.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE.
London, Aug. 22.—(11:46)—In a despatch from St. Petersburg, the correspondent of the Reuter's says that the Russian general advance both on Austria and Germany is progressing without interruption. A big cavalry engagement of the northern army on Friday was a severe blow to the Germans in East Prussia.

THOSE PATRIOTIC BANNERS.
The banners which were carried by the playground children yesterday were made by Frederick W. Stringer, the artist of the Imperial. He is an ardent Englishman and joyously made this contribution to the children's parade. His kindness was much appreciated.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT FAIRVILLE IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Fine Programme of Sports Carried Out — Stanley Nelson Goes to the Front — Other News of Fairville

Yesterday afternoon the non-sectarian Sunday school conducted by Mrs. S. A. Carpenter, Manawagonish Road, held its annual picnic on the grounds of Edward Long. The South Bay school had planned to join in the festivities, but owing to the rather unsettled weather, did not do so.

FOOTBALL AND OTHER SPORTS WERE THOROUGHLY ENJOYED BY THE FIFTY OR MORE CHILDREN AND THEN THE RACES WERE RUN.

Boys' prize being won by David Long, while Miss Carvell was first in the young ladies' race.

Supper was served to all under the capable direction of Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. Ed. Long. The whole affair was directly under the management of Mrs. Carpenter, who has labored faithfully these many years in Sunday school work in this section, which is beyond the reach of the regular churches, and her efforts along this line have been much appreciated by the children and parents alike.

AMONG THOSE WHO LEFT FOR THE FRONT IN THE QUITS OF SOLDIERS FROM FAIRVILLE, THE NAME OF STANLEY NELSON WAS OMITTED, AS HE ONLY ENLISTED A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE DEPARTURE OF THE TRAIN.

Mr. Nelson was surprised to hear of his going. He is attached to the signaling corps.

Miss Julia Pirie and her assistant, Miss Helen Henessey have prepared a programme to be rendered by the children and the exercises will begin at 4 o'clock sharp. If the weather is not fine enough closing will be postponed until Monday.
