"MOST MAGNETIC WOMAN IN AMERICA" TO THRILL NEXT SEASON'S PLAYGOERS

MISS HELEN FERMAN, BELASCO'S MYSTERIOUS NEW STAR.

New York, July 1.—David Belasco, the wisest astronomer of the stage, has found a new star—Helen Ferman. He is going to see that she shines next season.

Last season Miss Ferman appeared in a minor role in one of the Belasco productions and then dropped from view. But David did not lose sight of her. He saw in her rare talent and has been planning how to bring it out. He is giving her much personal attention and declares that with a little more development and a suitable role she will leap to a great success.

Nobody knows anything about her. But when Belasco says he has made a discovery, most persons take his word for it, remembering Mrs. Leslie Carter, Frances Starr and a score of other unknowns that he has made famous.

Aside from her talent and personality, she is one of the most beautiful women on the stage.

The plum trees in the garden of William Longfellow at Machias, Me which are now in full blossom, were brought from Wisconsin many years ago, and are of the type which grow wild in that state. The plum which these trees bear is small and red; the blossoms are semi-double and white.

RECENT WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding took place in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Cambridge (Mass.), on Monday, when the Rev. Father Crowe, pastor, united in marriage Miss Katherine A. McParland, daughter of the late James McParland, and Thomas L. McDermott, son of the late William McDermott, both of St. John. Mr. and Mrs. McDermott left for Atlantic City, New York and Washington, and will return in four weeks to spend the summer in Quebec, and will be at home in St. John after October 1.

Mrs. Helen Macdonald, of Welsford, announces the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Jamieson, to Archie Douglas Melrose, on Tuesday morning, June 17 last, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle, the bride's sister, at Maymont, Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Melrose have many friends in the east and in the west who will read the announcement with pleasure and who will heartily congratulate them.

When William Downie returns next spring from England, it is understood he will not again assume the duties of general superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., but will accept superannuation. He would be entitled to retire after another year's service, but this will be dispensed with in appreciation of his successful work with the road. On his return from England he will settle his affairs here and will move to Vancouver where he has extensive private interests and where the climate is more suitable to his health.

Time is an estate that will produce nothing without culture, but will always abundantly repay the labors of industry.—Johnston.

"An English View of Mr. Bryan."

Among all classes and all parties there has grown up a feeling toward Mr. Bryan which, in its kindness and its desire to be just, amounts, for those who remember the passion and dementia of 1896, to a veritable revolution. His bitterest opponents today would not deny that he believes all he says, though they might add that the more wrong-headed it is the more ardently he believes it. There is a pretty well universal acknowledgment that he is no self-seeker, that his politics spring from his convictions, and that he fights for them with unimpeachable dignity and fairness. Mr. Bryan has proved himself, and for that I honor him, an effective voice of protest against social and economic inequalities and injustices. But has he proved himself anything more? He can diagnose general conditions with a rough-and-ready accuracy that is due to the keenness of his sympathies and not to the keenness of his perceptions. He has striven up many questions, but he has never yet found the right, or anything approaching the right, answer to any of them. He has sensitiveness, a generous heart, a great fund of idealism, and a crew that looks kindly on the underdog. But balance, knowledge, perspective, a sense of the feasible, a distrust of empiricism—in all these qualities which are the very stuff of statesmanship flattery itself would have to admit his deficiency. He belongs to the type of men whom Nature in her perversity has framed to ruin countries from the west and with the highest intelligence and the most stimulating and now and then a captivating orator, and the sheer sincerity of the man always holds his audience spellbound.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY

Orange Lily is daily curing the most obstinate cases of Female Disorders, Paining the Womb, Leucorrhoea, Painful and Suppressed Menstruation, etc., etc. All of them relieved from the start by its use, and a few weeks' or months' treatment accomplishes a complete cure. This remedy is a positive, scientific preparation, and is based on the discoveries of Pasteur and Lister. It is an applied treatment; that is, it is not taken internally, but is applied direct to the suffering parts, and it, therefore, acts with all the certainty of the known laws of chemical action. As it comes in direct contact with the diseased tissue, its antiseptic and nerve-food properties cannot help have a beneficent influence. I receive from 10 to 40 letters daily, speaking of the benefits and cures it is performing, and so sure am I that it will do what is claimed for it that I will send, absolutely free, a 5c. box to every suffering woman who will write for it. Price $1 per box, which is sufficient for one month's treatment. Address: MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAN, WINDSOR, ONT.
