Fifth Game.
The fifth game of the amateur championship series will be played on the Queen square diamond this evening at 7 o'clock sharp between the Commercial and St. George's. Both teams are even with two wins and lost and tonight's game will decide matters for a while. The best four games out of seven will settle matters. Kerr may be sent back again tonight and will find himself opposed by Stirling for St. George's. It is possible that a game will be staged on the East End grounds.

Boston Travelers Will Play Tonight.
The Boston Travelers baseball team will play St. Peter's tonight on the latter's grounds. The Travelers on last Friday night defeated St. Peter's in one of the best games of the season and are confident of getting another win this evening. The same infield which played so well in the first game will be in action for the Travelers tonight.

The third game of the series will be played Tuesday night at the health centre benefit, which is also the final game in the provinces for the Travelers. Manager Smith announced that Geary will twirl against the locals in the benefit game Tuesday and Ponton or McNevin will do the pitching tonight.

Working Agreement Considered.
Ottawa, Aug. 21—A special meeting of the National Hockey League was held here on Saturday. It was called to consider the question of making a working agreement between the Western Canada Hockey Association, formerly the Big Five, and the National Hockey League. No details of the proposed agreement were given out following the conference, but it was said that the National Hockey League had gone on record as being in favor of the making an agreement with the Western Canada League.

Association Game.
On Saturday evening the second of a series of games of Association football between the Marlborough and New Brunswick lodges, Sons of England, was played and resulted in a win for the former, 4 to 0. It is the intention of the society to host this game as much as possible, and regular practice will be started on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock.

St. Stephen Win Championship.

The St. Stephen ball team are now champions of the St. Croix league, the pennant going to them, when Woodland defeated Milltown by the score of 3-2 on Saturday.

Health Centre Game.

St. Peter's and the Boston Travelers will clash tomorrow night in what is expected to be one of the greatest games of the season, the proceeds to go towards St. John's new Health Centre. The Boston boys defeated the locals last Friday night, 3-1, and are out to take another, while the Saints are bound to even up the count. It is likely that Hansen will twirl for St. Peter's, while Lefty Geary is the probable choice of the visitors.

The Carleton Cornet Band will parade from the head of King street to the park, and will also play before and after the game. Cadets in uniforms will sell tickets along the line of march. These tickets admit to the grandstand without further charge. Four nurses from the General Public Hospital, the Misses Dorothy Fraser, Gertrude Bickerstaffe, Edna Lingley and Leona Wood, were present in uniform at Saturday's game, and met with much success in selling tickets among the fans.
