

REPORT OF SESSION.

The Session review the operations and experiences of the past year with thanksgiving to the Great King and Head of the Church.

The good hand of the Great Shepherd has continued to the congregation that wisdom which produces peace, unity and concord among the members of the flock.

Notwithstanding the felt commercial depression of the times there has been no diminution in the offerings of the congregation for the support of the various schemes of the church at home and the diffusion of the Gospel in heathen countries.

In the great and special work of Christ's Church,—the ingathering and edification of the Redeemed—the Session believe there are some hopeful signs of increasing vitality, many are praying that the drops which have fallen may prove the earnest of the fruitful showers.
